Intertextual Loops in Modern Drama Christine Olga Kiebuszinska, 2001 Kiebuszinska who teaches modern drama comparative literature and film at Virginia Tech considers intertextuality in modern drama In nine essays she examines the connections between the works of modern playwrights such as Kundera Jelinek and Hampton and the texts of earlier writers such as Diderot

Christian Internationalism and German Belonging Rebecca Carter-Chand, 2025-10-21 Ever since the Salvation Army a British Protestant social welfare organization arrived in Germany in 1886 it has navigated overlapping national and international identities After existing on the margins of the German religious landscape while solidifying its role as a social service provider the Salvation Army proactively shaped its public profile during the Nazi rise to power Accepted into the Nazi Volksgemeinschaft ethnonational community and made an auxiliary member of the National Socialist People's Welfare NSV the organization continued limited operations throughout the Nazi period before returning to its international affiliations in the immediate postwar period thereby bypassing denazification and rehabilitating its reputation In this groundbreaking reevaluation Rebecca Carter Chand argues that the Salvation Army was able to emphasize different aspects of its identity to bolster and repair its reputation as needed in varied political contexts highlighting the variability of Nazi practices of inclusion and exclusion In that way the organization was similar to other Christian groups in Germany Counter to common hypotheses that minority religious groups are more likely to show empathy to other minorities dynamics within Nazi Germany reveal that many religious minorities sought acceptance from the state in an effort to secure self preservation

Bertolt Brecht's Dramatic Theory John J. White, 2004 In concert with his work as a politically charged playwright and dramaturge Bertolt Brecht concerned himself extensively with the theory of drama He was convinced that the Aristotelian ideal of audience catharsis through identification with a hero and the resultant experience of terror and pity worked against his goal of bettering society He did not want his audiences to feel but to think and his main theoretical thrusts Verfremdungseffekte de familiarization effects and epic theater among others were conceived in pursuit of this goal This is the first detailed study in English of Brecht's writings on the theater to take account of works first made available in the recent German edition of his collected works It offers in depth analyses of Brecht s canonical essays on the theater from 1930 to the late 1940s and early GDR years Close readings of the individual essays are supplemented by surveys of the changing connotations within Brecht s dramaturgical oeuvre of key theoretical terms including epic and anti Aristotelian theater de familiarization historicization and dialectical theater Brecht s distinct contribution to the theorizing of acting and audience response is examined in detail and each theoretical essay and concept is placed in the context of the aesthetic debates of the time subjected to a critical assessment and considered in light of subsequent scholarly thinking In many cases the playwright s theoretical discourse is shown to employ methods of epic presentation and techniques of de familiarization that are corollaries of the dramatic techniques for which his plays are justly famous John J White is Professor of German and Comparative Literature at King s College London

Brecht & Co Ulrike Garde,2007 German speaking playwrights have exercised a considerable if subtle influence on Australian theatre history Presenting a range of paradigmatic case studies this book offers a detailed account of Australian productions of German language drama between 1945 and 1996 The reception of Bertolt Brecht is used as a touchstone for analysing stagings of plays by writers such as Max Frisch Rolf Hochhuth Peter Handke and Franz Xaver Kroetz In addition more recent developments in the reception of German drama on the Australian stage are discussed

Cultural History Through a National Socialist Lens Robert Charles Reimer,2000 This collection of essays offers a view of Nazi Germany through an analysis of twenty films These represent a sampling of the period s directors and reflect the film medium s major genres For in spite of the control that Goebbels s film industry exercised over all aspects of filmmaking in the Third Reich the films reveal an individuality that belies subsuming them under any one rubric or containing them within any one theory Films such as Hitlerjunge Quex Die groe Liebe and Auf Wiedersehen Franziska represent the Nazi film industry s efforts to propagandize through entertainment Others such as Immensee Kleider machen Leute and Der Schimmelreiter reveal an attempt to expropriate Germany s rich literary past for the regime These literary adaptations and films like Gl ckskinder La Habanera and Der Kaiser von Kalifornien today seem void of Nazi ideology if viewed outside the context of Nazism Yet another film Der ewige Jude shocks us with its virulent anti-Semitism and hateful propaganda almost sixty years after its release All of the films treated regardless of their fame or notoriety or the level of commitment of their directors to the Nazi cause played an important role in a cinema that not only represents the dreams and lives of the citizens of the Third Reich but influenced them as well Robert C Reimer is professor of German at the University of North Carolina Charlotte

Brecht Newsletter ,2001 Brechtian Cinemas Nenad Jovanovic,2017-01-30 Explores the influence of Bertolt Brecht s ideas on the practice and study of cinema In Brechtian Cinemas Nenad Jovanovic uses examples from select major filmmakers to delineate the variety of ways in which Bertolt Brecht s concept of epic dialectic theatre has been adopted and deployed in international cinema Jovanovic critically engages Brecht s ideas and their most influential interpretations in film studies from apparatus theory in the 1970s to the presently dominant cognitivist approach He then examines a broad body of films including Brecht's own Mysteries of a Hairdressing Salon 1923 and Kuhle Wampe 1932 Jean Marie Straub and Dani le Huillet's History Lessons 1972 Peter Watkins's La Commune 2000 and Lars von Trier's Nymphomaniac 2013 Jovanovic argues that the role of montage a principal source of artistic estrangement Verfremdung in earlier Brechtian films has diminished as a result of the technique's conventionalization by today's Hollywood and related industries Operating as primary agents of Verfremdung in contemporary films inspired by Brecht's view of the world and the arts Jovanovic claims are conventions borrowed from the main medium of his expression theatre Drawing upon a vast number of sources and disciplines that include cultural film literature and theatre studies Brechtian Cinemas demonstrates a continued and broad relevance of Brecht for the practice and understanding of cinema This book opens up one of the most vaguely and often ill employed terms within film theory for extremely detailed discussion providing the most thorough analysis of Brechtianism available to film scholars It will become a standard reference R Barton Palmer coeditor of Invented Lives Imagined Communities The Biopic and American National Identity
