Shouting Down the Silence David C Dougherty, 2010-10-01 Shouting Down the Silence presents the first complete biography of Stanley Elkin a preeminent novelist who consistently won high marks from critics but whose complexities of style seemed destined to elude the popular acclaim he hoped to attain From the publication of his second novel A Bad Man in 1967 to his death in 1995 Elkin was tormented by the desire for both material and artistic success Elkin's novels were taught in colleges and universities his fiction received high praise from critics and reviewers two of his novels won National Book Critics Circle Awards and his short stories were widely anthologized and yet he was unable to achieve renown beyond the avant garde or to escape the stigma of being an academic writer He wanted to be Faulkner but he had trouble being Elkin Drawing on personal interviews and an intimate knowledge of Elkin's life and works David C Dougherty captures Elkin's early life as the son of a charismatic intimidating and remarkably successful Jewish immigrant from Russia as well as his later career at Washington University in St Louis A frequent participant at the annual Bread Loaf Writers conference he was the friend and sometime antagonist of other important writers particularly Saul Bellow William Gass Howard Nemerov and

Robert Coover Despite failed attempts to bridge the gap from his academic post to wide popular success Elkin continued to write essays stories and novels that garnered unerring praise His was a classic dilemma of an intellectual aesthete loath to make use of the common devices of popular appeal The book details the ambition the success the friction and the foibles of a writer who won fame but not the fame he wanted Conversations with Barry Lopez William E. Tydeman, 2013-08-26 Known as an advocate for the endangered earth Barry Lopez is one of America's preeminent writers on nature This invigorating book invites readers to sit down with Lopez and his friend William E Tydeman to engage with their conversations about activism the life of the mind and all things literary Even readers who think they know everything there is to know about Lopez will learn much from this richly informative book both from Tydeman's concise biography of Lopez and from the dialogue about Lopez's ideas and experiences The three interviews and Tydeman's reflections on other discussions with Lopez gathered here address nature human beings relationship to the land the tension between political activism and the life of the intellectual memory and reconciliation the artist's social responsibility and the business of authorship What is the nature of the relationship between the writer and the reader Lopez asks It's reciprocal contractual and moral Lopez's thoughts on the importance of authenticity will resonate with every reader or writer as will his deep commitment to story in all his work He and Tydeman engage in illuminating exchanges on style and genre the publication process and relationships among authors editors and publishers Both men are interested in photography and its relationship to writing a subject on which they offer thought provoking comments A comprehensive annotated bibliography of Lopez's writings by archivist Diane Warner rounds out the volume The Essay Edward P. J. Corbett, Sheryl L. Finkle, 1993 Provides 72 essays of varied themes that range from the 16th century to the 20th century Based on the essayistic tradition the essays cover a wide range of topics including personal identity family relationships character types the animal kingdom town and country education mortality the national pastime language social and political issues freedom of opinion the sexes and the art of the essay For courses on advanced composition freshman composition and essay as literature Wise Women Phyllis Freeman, Jan Schmidt, 2013-12-02 Wise Women is a collection of autobiographical essays by important and renowned teachers at mid life The essays which are deeply personal will focus on how these women negotiate the psychological physical and social changes brought on by menopause and how the aging process affects their lives as professionals feminists writers mentors and instructors in the academy The book addresses such questions as the following What challenges are left for the feminists who came of age during the women's movement and now have achieved academic success How do women teachers experience their aging selves in the classroom What legacy will mid life women leave their younger women colleagues All of these questions as well as many others are covered in this insightful and groundbreaking work Earth Works Scott Russell Sanders, 2012-02 A collection of Sanders' finest essays in which he examines his Midwestern background his father's drinking his opposition to war his literary inheritance and his feeling for wildness Essayists on the Essay Carl H. Klaus, Ned

Stuckey-French,2012-03-15 The first historically and internationally comprehensive collection of its kind Essayists on the Essay is a path breaking work that is nothing less than a richly varied sourcebook for anyone interested in the theory practice and art of the essay This unique work includes a selection of fifty distinctive pieces by American Canadian English European and South American essayists from Montaigne to the present many of which have not previously been anthologized or translated as well as a detailed bibliographical and thematic guide to hundreds of additional works about the essay From a buoyant introduction that provides a sweeping historical and analytic overview of essayists thinking about their genre a collective poetics of the essay to the detailed headnotes offering pointed information about both the essayists themselves and the anthologized selections to the richly detailed bibliographic sections Essayists on the Essay is essential to anyone who cares about the form This collection provides teachers scholars essayists and readers with the materials they need to take a fresh look at this important but often overlooked form that has for too long been relegated to the role of service genre used primarily to write about other more literary genres or to teach young people how to write Here in a single celebratory volume are four centuries of commentary and theory reminding us of the essay s storied history its international appeal and its relationship not just with poetry and fiction but also with radio film video and new media Dialogue and Critical

Discourse Michael Macovski,1997-08-07 This interdisciplinary volume of collected mostly unpublished essays demonstrates how Mikhail Bakhtin s theory of dialogic meaning and its subsequent elaborations have influenced a wide range of critical discourses With essays by Michael Holquist Jerome J McGann John Searle Deborah Tannen Gary Saul Morson Caryl Emerson Shirley Brice Heath Don H Bialostosky Paul Friedrich Timothy Austin John Farrell Rachel May and Michael Macovski the collection explores dialogue not only as an exchange among intratextual voices but as an extratextual interplay of historical influences oral forms and cultural heuristics as well Such approaches extend the implications of dialogue beyond the boundaries of literary theory to anthropology philosophy linguistics and cultural studies The essays address such issues as the establishment and exercise of political power the relation between conversational and literary discourse the historical development of the essay and the idea of literature as social action Taken together the essays argue for a redefinition of literary meaning one that is communal interactive and vocatively created They demonstrate that literary meaning is not rendered by a single narrator nor even by a solitary author but is incrementally exchanged and constructed Theory and Practice in the Teaching of Writing Lee Odell,1993 Responding to recent powerful arguments that theory has only a limited role in the field teachers of composition suggest to their colleagues how they can and why they should teach from a theoretical stance developed from their own experience The ten essays focus on the process of knowing the historical and social context and mechanisms of teaching Paper edition 1947 0 19 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR
