was lined with three hundred broad pieces a handsome offering from a poor and plundered clergyman On another occasion he armed a ford through which rebel cavalry were to pass by certain pieces of iron with four spikes so contrived that one spike must always be uppermost caltrops in short Two hundred of the enemy were destroyed by this stratagem The success of the rebels naturally led to the ruin of this cavalier clergyman and the record of his calamities forms a conspicuous article in Walker s Sufferings of the Clergy He died in 1658 before the advent of the better times in which he might have been rewarded for his loyal services His numerous family had to struggle for a living The eldest son Godwin Swift was a barrister of Gray s Inn at the time of the Restoration he was married four times and three times to women of fortune his first wife had been related to the Ormond family and this connexion induced him to seek his fortune in Ireland a kingdom which at that time suffered amongst other less endurable grievances from a deficient supply of lawyers Godwin Swift was made Attorney General in the palatinate of Tipperary by the Duke of Ormond He prospered in his profession in the subtle parts of which says his nephew he was perhaps a little too dexterous and he engaged in various speculations having at one time what was then the very large income of 3000l a year Four brothers accompanied this successful Godwin and shared to some extent in his prosperity In January 1666 one of these Jonathan married to Abigail Erick of Leicester was appointed to the stewardship of the King s Inns Dublin partly in consideration of the loyalty and suffering of his family Some fifteen months later in April 1667 he died leaving his widow with an infant daughter and seven months after her husband s death November 30 1667 she gave birth to Jonathan the younger at 7 Hoey s Court Dublin

The church as sacred space in Middle English literature and culture Laura Varnam,2018-01-11 This book presents an exciting new approach to the medieval church by examining the role of literary texts visual decorations ritual performance and lived experience in the production of sanctity The meaning of the church was intensely debated in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries This book explores what was at stake not only for the church s sanctity but for the identity of the parish community as a result Focusing on pastoral material used to teach the laity it shows how the church s status as a sacred space at the heart of the congregation was dangerously but profitably dependent on lay practice The sacred and profane were inextricably linked and paradoxically the church is shown to thrive on the sacrilegious challenge of lay misbehaviour and sin

The Complete Works John Bunyan,1877 The Sermons of Henry Ward Beecher in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn Henry Ward Beecher,1872 Islamic Homosexualities Stephen O. Murray,Will Roscoe,1997-02 The first anthropological collection that reveals patterns of male and female homosexuality in the Muslim World The dramatic impact of Islamic fundamentalism in recent years has skewed our image of Islamic history and culture Stereotypes depict Islamic societies as economically backward hyper patriarchal and fanatically religious But in fact the Islamic world encompasses a great diversity of cultures and a great deal of variation within those cultures in terms of gender roles and sexuality The first collection on this topic from a historical and anthropological perspective Homosexuality in the Muslim World reveals that patterns of male and female homosexuality have existed and often flourished within the Islamic world. Indeed, same sex relations have until quite recently been much more tolerated under Islam than in the Christian West. Based on the latest theoretical perspectives in gender studies, feminism and gay studies, Homosexuality in the Muslim World includes cultural and historical analyses of the entire Islamic world, not just the so-called Middle East. Essays show both age-stratified patterns of homosexuality as revealed in the erotic and romantic poetry of medieval poets and gender-based patterns in which both men and women might, to varying degrees, choose to live as members of the opposite sex. The contributors draw on historical documents, literary texts, ethnographic observation and direct observation by both Muslim and non-Muslim authors to show the considerable diversity of Islamic societies and the existence of tolerated gender and sexual variances.
