

A stylized graphic of a piano keyboard is positioned on the left side of the book cover. The keys are represented by horizontal bars of varying lengths, colored in teal, purple, and red. The bars are arranged in a way that suggests the layout of a piano keyboard, with the red bars representing the white keys and the purple and teal bars representing the black keys. The graphic is oriented vertically, matching the text on the right.

Reflections, Bk 2, 2000-11 Once piano students reach the late elementary and early intermediate levels, they often enjoy playing music with themes of longing, pensiveness, and daydreaming that reflect their understanding of the world around them. This collection furnishes a grand selection of moody musings composed by one of Alfred's favorite composers, Martha Mier. Whether wandering through Dream Castles or basking in the warmth of Song of Spring, students will find selections they relate to and look forward to performing.
