Things I Want My Kids To Know:

I Want My Kids to Know Who God Really is Barb Cantrell, 2022-06-14 In all ages faith has provided a backbone and common entity connection for the masses Faith need not tear people apart because it is a personal journey Where three such travelers meet in good faith Jesus is there Societal norms have shifted away from the Bible and active faith the type that actually works It is more important than ever to bless our children and give them a charge to carry out their faith in life Our families depend upon the government to raise our children in hope and that is not being done There is a deliberate effort to undermine faith in the USA for the purpose of weakening those in opposition to worldly plans Simply understanding the Hippocratic Oath as to Apollyon the devil can be a game changer Nearly every law passed these days is linked to a medical community that harms all day long and gives it oath to the devil Rule of law is imposed when the expected outcome is in opposition to the Constitution We must be wise as wolves to navigate it and yet remember the free flowing faith that Jesus wants us to own all our days so we can commune with Him daily and in times of need Our nation will fall to tyranny from within if we do not charge our children with keeping this a country under God Every walk of life is affected How would the LGBTQ community view their Democrat rescuers if they learned they were made gay and Democrat after it was found in a lab that a certain vitamin deficiency made rats homosexual and the science was applied to school lunch menus and after school snacks Would they still be useful digits suffering Stockholm Syndrome or would they rise against this maltreatment with anger at the loss of natural life and demand reparation and resignations Fathers mothers or grandparents if neither of the former are there lay hands on the child and bless them command them to do well by the Lord Command them to live long and multiply and prosper and be a light for the world

Conflicted Scars Justin Davis, 2022-10-18 An indispensable guide to parents of hockey hopefuls At a time of great change in hockey Justin Davis exposes the dark underbelly of the journey from the minors to the big leagues Hockey culture it's a commonly used phrase inside the game glorifying sacrifice toughness loyalty and a sense of identity Justin Davis viewed this culture as something he was lucky enough to experience After all he'd won a Memorial Cup after leading the tournament in scoring and he'd been drafted by the Washington Capitals In my mind he says I was the normal one Unfortunately after stepping outside the game he began to recognize the racism sexual abuse and bullying that was so deeply ingrained in the sport And then as his own children grew into teenagers the curtain was pulled back the memories came rushing forward and he was horrified Why was I naked in a bus bathroom for four hours with seven teammates What happened to my brain and why can't I remember the simplest things How did I end up living in a basement where the strangers upstairs were clearly engaged in domestic abuse As it navigates the sport's darkest corridors Conflicted Scars shares the story of the common Canadian player and offers a guide for parents who need to know how and why a typical teenager with NHL dreams from a small town now lives anxiously a person's autistic identity and to autistic culture. Further, the impacts of stigma and prejudice can be internalized by autistic individuals which may not only have poor effects on their wellbeing but also increase the want and/or need to mask or camouflage to pass as non-autistic. Masking or camouflaging can reduce a person's sense of belonging, self-esteem, sense of self-worth, and close relationships, all of which are associated with poor outcomes. It can also lead to avoidance of opportunities such as connection with other autistic individuals that could increase quality of life. This Research Topic aims to showcase evidence on why the stigma surrounding autism and the prejudice against autistic people are so detrimental. It hopes to provide insights into research and interventions on how stigma and prejudice can be tackled as well as awareness, understanding, and acceptance raised in the hope that the research presented will translate to best practice applications in clinical, public health, policy, and community settings. We invite researchers to submit a range of articles including but not limited to original research, articles, reviews, meta-analyses, opinions, perspectives, and case reports to provide new evidence on the following:

- Harmful impacts of stigma and prejudice on autistic people
- Interventions on reducing stigma surrounding and prejudice against autistic people
- Health promotion in autism, i.e. approaches that increase the mental and physical wellbeing of autistic people
- Interventions targeted at increasing understanding of autism and neurodiversity as well as increasing acceptance and advocacy of as well as allyship with autistic people
- Examining intersectionality in autism stigma and/or prejudice towards autistic people of diverse backgrounds

The Christian Mama's Guide to Grade School Years Erin MacPherson, 2013-04-08. Prepares moms for the time when their school-aged kids take their first few steps into the world and away from mama's nest. Sending a child off to school is a whole lot more than stocking up on school supplies and packing a somewhat healthy lunch. This helpful guidebook walks Christian moms through discovering a long-term vision for the person that Christ has purposed for your child, to become, instilling a sense of who I am and where I came from in your child, choosing a school for your kids, helping your kids to develop key attributes: courage, kindness, perseverance, that lead to success in school, dealing with teachers, sports, and lessons, navigating those difficult conversations that will come sooner rather than later. A special feature includes sidebars from the Principal's Office with insights from a 35-year elementary school principal and educator. Moms will learn how to cover their children in prayer so that their launch into the world and away from her control is done with grace and wisdom, helping them grow into the men and women God intended them to be.
