Salek,2012 Before 9 11 films addressing torture outside of the horror slasher genre depicted the practice in a variety of forms In most cases torture was cast as the act of a desperate and depraved individual and the viewer was more likely to identify with the victim rather than the torturer Since the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 scenes of brutality and torture in mainstream comedies dramatic narratives and action films appear for little other reason than to titillate and delight In these films torture is devoid of any redeeming qualities represented as an exercise in brutal senselessness carried out by authoritarian regimes and institutions This volume follows the shift in the representation of torture over the past decade specifically in documentary action and political films It traces and compares the development of this trend in films from the United States Europe China Latin America South Africa and the Middle East Featuring essays by sociologists psychologists historians journalists and specialists in film and cultural studies the collection approaches the representation of torture in film and television from multiple angles and disciplines connecting its aesthetics and practices to the dynamic of state terror and political domination Prologue ,1998 Ten-Tronck's Celebrity Locator Rob Ten-Tronck,2005 The Celebrity Locator provides the addresses to our complete database of Movie Stars TV Stars Authors Politicians Rock Stars Athletes and Other Famous People If a person is famous or worth locating it s almost certain their regular address almost 12000 agents representative or web site can be found in here Showmen's Motion Picture Trade Review ,1948

Kubrick, New and Expanded Edition Thomas Allen Nelson,2000 Stanley Kubrick ranks among the most important American film makers of his generation but his work is often misunderstood because it is widely diverse in subject matter and seems to lack thematic and tonal consistency Thomas Nelson s perceptive and comprehensive study of Kubrick rescues him from the hostility of auteurist critics and discovers the roots of a Kubrickian aesthetic which Nelson defines as the aesthetics of contingency After analyzing how this aesthetic develops and manifests itself in the early works Nelson devotes individual chapters to Lolita Dr Stangelove 2001 A Space Odyssey A Clockwork Orange Barry Lyndon and The Shining For this expanded edition Nelson has added chapters on Full Metal Jacket and Eyes Wide Shut and in the wake of the director's death reconsidered his body of work as a whole By placing Kubrick in a historical and theoretical context this study is a reliable guide into and out of Stanley Kubrick's cinematic maze      Best Years Charles Affron, Mirella Jona Affron, 2009-08-14 Americans flocked to the movies in 1945 and 1946 the center point of the three decade heyday of the studio system's sound era Why Best Years is a panoramic study shining light on this critical juncture in American history and the history of American cinema the end of World War II 1945 and a year of unprecedented success in Hollywood's Golden Age 1946 This unique time the last year of war and the first full year of peace provides a rich blend of cinema genres and types from the battlefield to the home front the peace film to the woman's film psychological drama and the period's provocative new style film noir Best Years focuses on films that were famous infamous forgotten and unforgettable Big budget A films road shows and familiar series share the spotlight From Bergman and Grant in Notorious to Abbott and Costello in Lost in a Harem Charles Affron and Mirella Jona Affron examine why the bond between screen and viewer was perhaps never tighter Paying special attention to the movie going public in key cities Atlanta New York Boston Honolulu and Chicago this ambitious work takes us on a cinematic journey to recapture a magical time      Moving Pictures/Stopping Places David B. Clarke, Valerie Crawford Pfannhauser, Marcus A. Doel, 2009-05-16 Mobility has long been a defining feature of modern societies yet remarkably little attention has been paid to the various stopping places _hotels motels and the like_ that this mobility presupposes If the paradoxical qualities of fixed places dedicated to facilitating movement have been overlooked by a variety of commentators film makers have shown remarkable prescience and consistency in engaging with these still points around which the world is made to turn Hotels and motels play a central role in a multitude of films ranging across an immensely wide variety of genres eras and national cinemas Whereas previous film theorists have focused on the movement implied by road movies and similar genres the outstanding contributions to this volume extend the recent engagement with space and place in film studies providing a series of fascinating explorations of the cultural significance of stopping places both on screen and off Ranging from the mythical elegance of the Grand Hotel through the uncanny spaces of the Bates motel to Korean love motels the wealth of insights from a variety of theoretical perspectives that this volume delivers is set to change our understanding of the role played by stopping places in an increasingly fluid world      Bulletin - Munson-Williams-Proctor Institute Munson-Williams-Proctor Institute, 1951
