takes issue with much genre criticism and genre theory which has provided only a partial and misleading account of Hollywood's output. He calls for broader and more flexible conceptions of genre and genres for more attention to be paid to the discourses and practices of Hollywood itself for the nature and range of Hollywood's films to be looked at in more detail and for any assessment of the social and cultural significance of Hollywood's genres to take account of industrial factors. In detailed revisionist accounts of two major genres, film noir and melodrama, Neale argues that genre remains an important and productive means of thinking about both New and old Hollywood, its history, its audiences and its films. Leonard Maltin's Movie and Video Guide, 1996 The Laser Video Disc Companion Douglas Pratt, 1995 Leonard Maltin's Movie and Video Guide 1994 Leonard Maltin, 1993-10.
