1492 The Poetics Of Diaspora:

1492 John Docker, 2001-08-02 An ambitious and wide ranging book by a well known author that ranges from discussions of literary texts to an examination of Genesis Mediterranean cookery The Thousand and One Nights Zionism and Anti Zionism Jewish mysticism and English Romanticism 1492 takes as a premise the lost world of a shared Indian Arab and Jewish culture which was destroyed in the early modern period by the expansion of Europe For Docker as for Salman Rushdie in The Moor's Last Sigh the crucial event of 1492 was not the discovery of the Americas but the almost simultaneous final defeat of Moorish Spain in the fall of Granada and the expulsion of the Jews of Spain Besides destroying the great Islamic Judaic culture in Spain it marked the beginning of nationalisms based on race religion and language Like the Crusades it created a notion of Europe in opposition to a previous Mediterranean civilization and one of its direct results was the Spanish inquisition 1492 was also the beginning of several diasporas and in the course of examining several 19th and 20th century works that deal with the Wandering Jew Ivanhoe Ulysses the author goes on to look at a number of literary texts as a vehicle for speculating about various consequences and complications for cultural and intellectual history which followed from this lost ideal

Growing Up Communist and Jewish in Bondi Volume 2 John Docker, 2020-10-15 Elsie Levy was born in the Jewish East End of London came to Sydney with her family when she was 14 and joined the Communist Party of Australia when she was a young woman In this book her son explores her diasporic Jewish identity both English and Australian and in the process journeys into Jewish cultural histories We meet important cultural figures such as Leonard Woolf Freud Schnitzler Veza Canetti and Ida Rubinstein This journey leads also to English anti-Semitism including shockingly Bloomsbury In turning to Communism and marrying out Elsie Levy became one of history's undutiful daughters

Legacies of Orientalism and Slavery in European Intellectual and Literary History John Docker, 2024-09-25 This book is an exercise in ethical criticism It draws on and works with ideas and suggestions from two of its notable exponents Wayne C Booth and Martha C Nussbaum who propose that we regard cultural texts as friends with whom we can enjoy productive conversations that address contemporary challenges and developments such as coercive control in gender relations imperial and colonial thinking and the centuries long history of slavery Throughout attention is drawn to female agency in figures from Joan of Arc Lady Mary Wortley Montagu and Rebecca in Sir Walter Scott's Ivanhoe through to Princess Diana The book begins by looking closely at The Thousand and One Nights in terms of its wayward narratology its displays of female power and its significance for arguments over the relationship between the Enlightenment and the conceptual underpinnings of the Holocaust Montesquieu in Persian Letters and Voltaire in Zadig destabilise any certainty that the Enlightenment was straightforward or easily definable After evoking a slavery thread in chapters on Jane Austen's Persuasion and Mansfield Park Patricia Rozema's film Mansfield Park and Jamaica Kincaid's Annie John the book concludes with a radical re-reading of Middlemarch

The Origins of Violence John Docker, 2008-08-20 Genocide is commonly understood to be a terrible aberration in human behaviour performed by evil murderous regimes such as the Nazis and dictators like Suharto and Pinochet John Docker argues that the roots of genocide go far deeper into human nature than most people realise Genocide features widely in the Bible the literature of ancient Greece and Rome and debates about the Enlightenment These texts are studied in depth to trace the origins of violence through time and across civilisations Developing the groundbreaking work of Raphael Lemkin who invented the term genocide Docker guides us from the dawn of agricultural society through classical civilisation to the present showing that violence between groups has been integral to all periods of history This revealing book will be of great interest to those wishing to understand the roots of genocide and why it persists in the modern age

The Literature of the Indian Diaspora Vijay Mishra, 2007-09-12 The Literature of the Indian Diaspora constitutes a major study of the literature and other cultural texts of the Indian diaspora It is also an important contribution to diaspora theory in general Examining both the old Indian diaspora of early capitalism following the abolition of slavery and the new diaspora linked to movements of late capital Mishra argues that a full understanding of the Indian diaspora can only be achieved if attention is paid to the particular locations of both the old and the new in nation states Applying a theoretical framework based on trauma mourning impossible mourning spectres identity travel translation and recognition Mishra uses the term imaginary to refer to any ethnic enclave in a nation state that defines itself consciously or unconsciously as a group in displacement He examines the works of key writers many now based across the globe in Canada Australia America and the UK V S Naipaul Salman Rushdie M G Vassanji Shani Mootoo Bharati Mukherjee David Dabydeen Rohinton Mistry and Hanif Kureishi among them to show how they exemplify both the diasporic imaginary and the respective traumas of the old and new Indian diasporas

Australia from the end of World War II to the early 1990s including the referendum to ban the Communist Party of Australia the rise of the Movement and the Labor split and post war migration this book is a powerful and poignant telling of the ways in which the political is personal Empire, Colony, Genocide A. Dirk Moses,2008 In 1944 Raphael Lemkin coined the term genocide to describe a foreign occupation that destroyed or permanently crippled a subject population This text is a world history of genocide that highlights what Lemkin called the role of the human group and its tribulations Growing Up Communist and Jewish in Bondi Volume 3 John Docker,2020-10-15 John Docker grew up in Bondi the son of Communist parents his mother Jewish from the East End of London and his father of Irish descent His Bondi is not the site of sunny mindlessness but rather a place of intense immigrant and political life This book traces his often comic experiences at Bondi Wellington Primary School and Randwick Boys High School At the University of Sydney from 1963 he became a teenage Leavisite and participated in the anarchistic New Left With Ann Curthoys he travelled on the Hippie Trail through Asia to London which became for both the scene of what Gorky referred to as the University of Life Edward Said Debjani Ganguly,Ned Curthoys,2015-03-25 This collection is an enterprise of discovery and critical inquiry into the legacy of one of late modernity s greatest public intellectuals Edward Said Noted contributors including Bill Ashcroft John Docker Lisa Lowe Hsu ming Teo and Patrick Wolfe address an array of intellectual political and cultural issues in their engagement with Said s oeuvre Exciting new scholarship highlights the ways in which humanities in the twenty first century can engage with Said s legacy which includes his imbrications of culture and imperialism his cosmopolitan critique of the idea of clash of civilisations and his belief that the intellectual needs to maintain intellectual performances on many fronts The individual chapters achieve a sense of balance between the two poles of Said s persona the brilliant and intimidating literary and music critic who invested deeply in an inclusive and democratic vision of humanism and the outspoken public intellectual who kept alive the truth of Palestine and the dangers of a settler colonial ethos Rethinking Gandhi and Nonviolent Relationality Debjani Ganguly,John Docker,2008-03-25 Through interdisciplinary research key Gandhian concepts are revisited by tracing their genealogies in multiple histories of world contact and by foregrounding their relevance to contemporary struggles to regain the humane in the midst of global conflict The Bibliography of Australasian Judaica 1788-2008 Serge Liberman,2018-11-01 This bibliography includes all traceable self contained books monographs pamphlets and chapters from books which in some way pertain to Jews in Australia and New Zealand between 1788 and 2008 Born in Russia in 1942 Serge Liberman came to Australia in 1951 where he now works as a medical practitioner As author of several short story collections including On Firmer Shores A Universe of Clowns The Life That I Have Led and The Battered and the Redeemed he has three times received the Alan Marshall Award and has also been a recipient of the NSW Premier s Literary Award In addition he is compiler of two previous editions of A Bibliography of Australian Judaica Several of his titles have been set as study texts in Australian and British high schools and universities His literary work has been widely published he has been

Re-envisioning Jewish Identities Efraim Sicher, 2021-08-30 This innovative study shows how the imaginary constructions of self and Other are shaping identification with Jewishness in the twenty first century The texts and artworks discussed in this book test a diverse range of ways of identifying as Jews and with the Jewish people while engaging with postmodern and postcolonial discourses of hybridity and multiculturalism This book selects six key areas in which the boundaries of Jewish identities have been interrogated and renegotiated nation ethnicity gender sexuality religion and the Holocaust In each of these areas Sicher explores how major and emerging contemporary writers and artists re envision the meaning of their identities Such re envisioning may be literally visual or metaphorical in the search for expression of artistic self between the conventional paradigms of the past and new ways of thinking

Anglophone Jewish Literature Axel Stähler, 2007-09-14 Anglophone Jewish literature is not traditionally numbered among the new literatures in English Rather Jewish literary production in English has conventionally been classified as hyphenated and has therefore not yet been subjected as such to the scrutiny of scholars of literary or cultural history The collection of essays addresses this lack and initiates the scholarly exploration of transnational and transcultural Anglophone Jewish literature as one of the New English Literatures Without attempting to impose what would seem to be a misguided conceptual unity on the many faceted field of Anglophone Jewish literature the book is based on a plurality of theoretical frameworks Alert to the productive friction between these discourses which it aims to elicit it confronts Jewish literary studies with postcolonial studies cultural studies and other contemporary theoretical frameworks Featuring contributions from among the best known scholars in the fields of British and American Jewish literature including Bryan Cheyette and Emily Miller Budick this collection transcends borders of both nations and academic disciplines and takes into account cultural and historical affinities and differences of the Anglophone diaspora which have contributed to the formation and development of the English language segment of Jewish literature

Sephardism Yael Halevi-Wise, 2012-04-11 In this book Sephardism is defined not as an expression of Sephardic identity but as a politicized literary metaphor Since the nineteenth century this metaphor has occurred with extraordinary frequency in works by authors from a variety of ethnicities religions and nationalities in Europe the Americas North Africa Israel and even India Sephardism asks why Gentile and Jewish writers and cultural figures have chosen to draw upon the medieval Sephardic experience to express their concerns about dissidents and minorities in modern nations To what extent does their use of Sephardism overlap with other politicized discourses such as orientalism hispanism and medievalism which also emerged from a clash between authoritarian progressive and romantic ideologies This book brings a new approach to Sephardic Studies by situating it at a crossroads between Jewish Studies and Hispanic Studies in ways that enhance our appreciation of how historical fiction and political history have shaped and were shaped by historical attitudes toward Jews and their representation

A New Imperial History Kathleen Wilson, 2004-06-17 This pioneering collection of essays charts an exciting new field in British studies the new imperial history Leading scholars from history literature and cultural studies tackle problems of identity modernity and difference in eighteenth century Britain and the empire They examine from interdisciplinary perspectives the reciprocal influences of empire and culture the movements of peoples practices and ideas effected by slavery diaspora and British dominance and ways in which subaltern non western and non elite people shaped British power and knowledge The essays move through Britain America India Africa and the South Pacific in testament to the networks of people commodities and entangled pasts forged by Britain s imperial adventures Based on ground breaking research these analyses of the imperial dimensions of British culture and identities in global contexts will challenge the notion that empire was something that happened out there and they demonstrate its long lasting implications for British identity and everyday life
