1492 1992 Voice Of The Victims:

Crosscurrents in Indigenous Spirituality Edward Cook, 2016-05-18 The resurgence of indigenous cultures and the reappearance of their ancient spiritualities during the 1990s is of great interest to social scientists. Several such cultures are featured in this book. The indigenous populations of struggling multi ethnic democracies in Latin America are demanding to be integrated into the national mainstream together with their holistic values of family economics and ecology. Institutional Christianity is being challenged by indigenous theologies that are critical of both traditional Christianity and liberation theology. While some see here a danger of syncretism, these developments can be experienced as a breath of fresh air. Much has been said about the Mayas but they have not been allowed to speak for themselves. anthropologist Rafael Girardi 1962. This book is an attempt to allow religious spokespersons from a very ancient and creative civilization to share their faith which has remained hidden for five centuries.

From Misery to Hope Joe Egan, 2010 How can one believe in a God of love amid all the evil and suffering found in the world? How does one do theology after Auschwitz while vast numbers of people still have to endure violent oppression every day? This book seeks to address such questions from a standpoint informed by life in Africa which in the face of extraordinary difficulties bears witness to Gospel hope by demonstrating forgiveness in action and promoting reconciliation. The work unfolds in two parts. In the first part a description of the misery that characterises much of life in Africa in the recent past opens up to a theological consideration of the underlying causes and of God's response to them. In the second part the joy which is so characteristic of life in Africa even in places of immense suffering sets the scene for detailed reflections on liturgy, memory, forgiveness and hope.

Development and Justice Rajula Annie Watson, 2004 Restoring the health of the land is indispensable not only because it is the ground of our sustenance and survival but also land has in itself the inherent worth. This book challenges humanity's indulgence and activities of development, science and technology and insists for human responsibility and moral duties towards the land, the sustaining mother earth which is abused, ransacked of its wealth and ignored of its intrinsic value. The study attempts to bring together perspectives and values that are important for preserving the rights of the land and proposes the contour of a land ethic.

Intercommunal Ecclesiology Steven J. Battin, 2022-07-21 What do Christian communities imagine when they think of themselves as church? And how do these ecclesiological imaginations inform Christianity's past and present entanglements with violence and injustice? Intercommunal Ecclesiology addresses these questions by examining the distinctive role intergroup dynamics play in shaping Christian collective behaviors against the other that are incongruent with Christian theological principles such as love of neighbor. Through interdisciplinary engagement with social psychology, systems theory, biblical criticism and studies in the early history of Christianity, this book makes a case for a theological re-envisioning of the church at the three-way intersection of an anthropology of intergroup dynamics, a soteriology adequately rooted in God's historical salvation plan and a Christology sensitive to Christ's collective embodiment. The book argues that within God's plan of historical salvation the church is supposed to function as God's communal response to intercommunal disunity a role it fulfills with integrity only when and where it enacts itself as a counterperformance to aggression conflict and indifference between human communities Transnational Faiths Hugo Córdova Quero,Rafael Shoji,2016-02-17 Japan has witnessed the arrival of thousands of immigrants since the 1990s from Latin America especially from Brazil and Peru Along with immigrants from other parts of the world they all express the new face of Japan one of multiculturalism and multi ethnicity Newcomers are having a strong impact in local faith communities and playing an unexpected role in the development of communities This book focuses on the role that faith and religious institutions play in the migrants process of settlement and integration The authors also focus on the impact of immigrants religiosity amidst religious groups formerly established in Japan Religion is an integral aspect of the displacement and settlement process of immigrants in an increasing multi ethnic multicultural and pluri religious contemporary Japan Religious institutions and their social networks in Japan are becoming the first point of contact among immigrants This book exposes and explores the often missed connection of the positive role of religion and faith based communities in facilitating varied integrative ways of belonging for immigrants The authors highlight the faith experiences of immigrants themselves by bringing their voices through case studies interviews and ethnographic research throughout the book to offer an important contribution to the exploration of multiculturalism in Japan

Kim,2012-05-03 The theological reflections of Virgilio Elizondo and Gustavo Gutierrez are examples of the ecclesial fruitfulness of the second half of the twentieth century Following the directives of Pope John XXIII and the Second Vatican Council Elizondo and Gutierrez present the Gospel message in relevant terms to their own people by engaging the world as the Church of the poor Inspired by this moment in Church history while at the same time recognizing the plight of their people in their poor and marginal existence Elizondo and Gutierrez discovered a new way of doing theology by asking a specific set of questions based on their local context By investigating where God is present in the border crossers of the southwestern United States and the poorest of the poor in Latin America both theologians have uncovered a hermeneutical lens in rereading Scripture and deepening our understanding of ecclesial tradition Elizondo's mestizaje and Gutierrez's preferential option for the poor arose out of a theology of context a theological method that takes seriously the contextual circumstances of their locale By utilizing the common loci theologici of Scripture and tradition in conjunction with context and their own experience Elizondo and Gutierrez illustrate through their theologies how every group must embrace their own unique theological reflection
