Women and the Labour Movement in Scotland, 1850-1914 Eleanor Gordon,1991 A study of working women in Scotland in the late 1900s this book uncovers the patterns of employment involvement in and relationship to trade unions and the forms of workplace resistance and struggles in which these women engaged Focusing particularly on women working in Dundee s jute industry Gordon integrates labor and gender history which challenges many assumptions about the organizational apathy of women workers and the inevitable division between workplace and domestic ideologies This book makes an important contribution to current historiographical debate over the sexual division of labor working class consciousness domestic ideologies and to the history of women in Scotland      Builders of Empire Jessica L. Harland-Jacobs,2012-09-01 They built some of the first communal structures on the empire s frontiers The empire s most powerful proconsuls sought entrance into their lodges Their public rituals drew dense crowds from Montreal to Madras The Ancient Free and Accepted Masons were quintessential builders of empire argues Jessica Harland Jacobs In this first study of the relationship between Freemasonry and British imperialism Harland Jacobs takes readers on a journey across two centuries and five continents demonstrating that from the moment it left Britain s shores Freemasonry proved central to the building and cohesion of the British Empire The organization formally emerged in 1717 as a fraternity identified with the ideals of Enlightenment cosmopolitanism such as universal brotherhood sociability tolerance and benevolence As Freemasonry spread to Europe the Americas Asia Australasia and Africa the group s claims of cosmopolitan brotherhood were put to the test Harland Jacobs examines the brotherhood s role in diverse colonial settings and the impact of the empire on the brotherhood in the process she addresses issues of globalization supranational identities imperial power fraternalism and masculinity By tracking an important identifiable institution across the wide chronological and geographical expanse of the British Empire Builders of Empire makes a significant contribution to transnational history as well as the history of the Freemasons and imperial Britain

Falk, 1999 History and Families, McCracken County, Kentucky, 1824-1989, 1989 Mahr exactly Udo Hinz, Thomas Keidel, Rita Seidel, Jan Strümpel, 2017-06-12 This book tells the story of a family run company that can be regarded as a classic example of a medium sized hidden champion The use of Mahr calipers in workshops and factories had already begun as early as 150 years ago during Germany's industrial expansion Göttingen's Mahr corporate group with locations on several continents had long been exporting high precision measuring devices all over the world The company's products themselves are less conspicuous yet thanks to their excellent performance impact the industry's optimization processes and thus the everyday life of the people As a stellar example Mahr stands for precise measurement in the millimeter to nanometer range from the workbench to the clean room from the courageous founder to the innovative high tech enterprise It all began with Carl Mahr's business that first came onto the scene in 1861 He supplied precision mechanics forestry offices factories and railway companies with measuring devices His son Oscar Mahr then opened the door to interchangeable production with the aid of go no go gauges that enabled mass production as we know it today also advanced by the armaments industry as is carefully traced in this book Members of the Mahr family led the company through the post war period and economic miracles through busts and booms into the present making up what is now the fifth generation This portrayal rich in illustrations is based on extensive and sound research Here 150 years of engineering and economic history are interwoven with a profound and exciting portrait of entrepreneurial and inventive spirit     National Register of Microform Masters, 1965-1975 Library of Congress.
