Artists, Advertising, and the Borders of Art Michele H. Bogart, 1995 In the first study of its kind Michele H Bogart explores in unprecedented detail the world of commercial art its illustrators publishers art directors photographers and painters She maps out the border between art and commerce and expands our picture of artistic culture and practice in the twentieth century with unexpected pairings of Norman Rockwell and Andy Warhol J C Leyendecker and Georgia O Keeffe the Metropolitan Museum of Art and Pepsi Cola the avant garde and the Famous Artists Schools Inc Colonialist Photography Eleanor M. Hight, Gary D. Sampson, 2013-06-17 Colonialist Photography is an absorbing collection of essays and photographs exploring the relationship between photography and European and American colonialism The book is packed with well over a hundred captivating images ranging from the first experiments with photography as a documentary medium up to the decolonization of many regions after World War II Reinforcing a broad range of Western assumptions and prejudices Eleanor M Hight and Gary D Sampson argue that such images often assisted in the construction of a colonial culture Real Fantasies Patricia Johnston,2023-11-15 During the 1920s and 1930s Edward Steichen was the most successful photographer in the advertising industry Although much has been said about Steichen s fine art photography his commercial work which appeared regularly in Vanity Fair Vogue Ladies Home Journal and almost every other popular magazine published in the United States has not received the attention it deserves At a time when photography was just beginning to replace drawings as the favored medium for advertising Steichen helped transform the producers of such products as Welch s grape juice and Jergens lotion from small family businesses to national household names In this book Patricia Johnston uses Steichen s work as a case study of the history of advertising and the American economy between the wars She traces the development of Steichen s work from an early naturalistic style through increasingly calculated attempts to construct consumer fantasies By the 1930s alluring images of romance and class developed in collaboration with agency staff and packaged in overtly manipulative and persuasive photographs became Steichen s stock in trade He was most frequently chosen by agencies for products targeted toward women his images depicted vivacious singles earnest new mothers and other stereotypically female life stages that reveal a great deal about the industry s perceptions of and pitches to this particular audience Johnston presents an intriguing inside view of advertising agencies drawing on an array of internal documents to reconstruct the team process that involved clients art directors account executives copywriters and photographers Her book is a telling chronicle of the role of mass media imagery in reflecting shaping and challenging social values in American culture During the 1920s and 1930s Edward Steichen was the most successful photographer in the advertising industry Although much has been said about Steichen s fine art photography his commercial work which appeared regularly in Vanity Fair Vogue Ladies Ho

Glorify the Empire Annika A. Culver,2013-02-01 In the 1930s and 40s Japanese rulers in Manchukuo enlisted writers and artists to promote imperial Japan s modernization program Ironically the cultural producers chosen to spread the imperialist message were previously left wing politically In Glorify the Empire Annika A Culver explores how these once anti imperialist intellectuals produced avant garde works celebrating the modernity of a fascist state and reflecting a complicated picture of complicity with and ambivalence toward Japan s utopian project A groundbreaking work Glorify the Empire magnifies the intersection between politics and art in a rarely examined period of Japanese history Stuart Davis Lowery Stokes Sims,Stuart Davis,1991 A volume on Stuart Davis an American artist of the 20th century He forged a personal and varied iconography inspired by the upheaval of the city the tranquility of the seaside industry and the automobile cafe society sports jazz music and his year long stay in Paris The Art Teacher's Book of Lists Helen D.
