Minter,2001 Focusing on the core novels including The Sound and the Fury Absalom Absalom Sanctuary Light in August 2003 and Go Down Moses David Minter illuminates Faulkner s mature fiction the tensions at play within the fiction and the creativity not only exhibited by the author but also extended to his characters and required of his readers Faulkner s achievement Minter contends was in combining daring experiments in form with searching examinations of grave social political and moral problems His novels change and expand the role of the reader by means of proliferating narratives that lead to questions rather than answers and to approximation rather than resolution Minter shows how this process at times implicates the reader in the corruption and violence of the story as when the reader is required to fill in out of his or her own experience the crucial gaps left in the narrative of Sanctuary Positioning Faulkner on the cusp between modernist and postmodernist writing Minter shows how his methods undercut the self contained exclusivity of the New Criticism by integrating the world of the novel with the reader s experience of history and culture Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), *Samuel R.
