Iwata, 2018-11-03 This second volume continues with a focus on the state of the art in genetic eye research in Asia and the Pacific Though there has been an explosion of information on genetic eye research in western countries more than sixty percent of the human genes involved in eye diseases in the Asian and Pacific population remain unknown However new efforts and a new awareness have sparked important discussions on the subject and new plans are being implemented to discover the genes responsible for many eye diseases in the population The book reviews the latest findings its content ranges from genetic aspects of human migration to DNA sequence analysis genome wide association analysis and disease phenotypes The efforts of the Asian Eye Genetic Consortium AEGC are also discussed The book's editors have been instrumental in developing strategies for discovering the new Asian genes involved in many eye diseases All chapters were written by leading researchers working on Asian eye genetics from the fields of Human Genetics Ophthalmology Molecular Biology Biochemistry Sensory Sciences and Clinical Research Advances in Vision Research Volume II will prove to be a major resource for all researchers clinicians clinical researchers and allied eye health professionals with an interest in eye diseases among the Asian population

Reference Guide to Africa Alfred Kagan, Atoma Batoma, 2014-10-16 This third edition of the Reference Guide to Africa explains the most important resources for the study of the continent of Africa It contains a general sources section and a larger disciplinary oriented section All sources are annotated A new edition is sorely needed since the last edition was published nine years ago The previous editions have been successfully used in research libraries worldwide since 1999 and it has been used to teach several African studies research courses The book provides an orientation for researching almost any topic in the arts humanities and social sciences concerning the continent of Africa and all of its countries and ethnic groups The first part explains and lists portals databases bibliographies indexes guides encyclopedias country sources biography primary sources government publications and statistics The second part presents 16 subject oriented chapters mostly in the arts humanities and social sciences from agriculture and food security to women studies It covers sources that broadly cover the continent or in some cases only North Africa and the Middle East It generally excludes sources limited to one country or region of Africa except for North Africa because of the nature of the literature One third of the sources in this edition are new and nearly half of them are available in electronic format There are author title and subject indexes This unique work is intended for students teachers librarians and researchers It likely will be used most by reference librarians and teachers for students in high school through graduate studies It will also be used independently by undergraduate and graduate students It can be used to answer simple reference questions provide the resources for an undergraduate paper or for comprehensive work by advanced students and researchers
