design advertising and collecting Though international in scope the book focuses especially on France and England Ruth E Iskin argues that the avant garde poster and the original art print played an important role in the development of a modernist language of art in the 1890s as well as in the adaptation of art to an era of mass media She moreover contends that this new form of visual communication fundamentally redefined relations between word and image poster designers embedded words within the graphic rather than using images to illustrate a text Posters had to function as effective advertising in the hectic environment of the urban street Even though initially commissioned as advertisements they were soon coveted by collectors Iskin introduces readers to the late nineteenth century iconophile a new type of collector curator archivist who discovered in poster collecting an ephemeral archaeology of modernity Bridging the separation between the fields of art design advertising and collecting Iskin s insightful study proposes that the poster played a constitutive role in the modern culture of spectacle This stunningly illustrated book will appeal to art historians and students of visual culture as well as social and cultural history media design and advertising

Commentary on the Book of Hours of the Master of Charles V Carla Rossi, 2025-02-25 The Book of Hours known as the Master of Charles V s Book of Hours is a rare and precious work produced between 1530 and 1538 in Flanders Based on the studies conducted here by Professor Carla Rossi this manuscript not only represents an extraordinary testament to the art of its time but also sheds light on the personal history of one of the most cultured and powerful noblewomen of the European Renaissance Marchioness Menc a de Mendoza 1508 1554 to whom as Rossi has discovered through archival research it was originally destined The manuscript was commissioned by Marchioness Menc a de Mendoza one of the most educated and influential ladies in Europe a refined collector of artworks who was in contact with the greatest painters illuminators and goldsmiths of her time It was intended as a gift for her husband Hendrik III of Nassau Dillenburg Viscount of Antwerp and Lord of Breda a confidant and chamberlain of Emperor Charles V of Habsburg on the occasion of one of her pregnancies This small sized codex with an exceptionally refined iconographic apparatus consists of 58 individual folios with no textual continuity between them as the binding was arranged solely based on aesthetic principles It features an incomplete calendar 12 miniatures framed within a simulated wooden border along with as many illustrations of zodiac symbols 14 full page miniatures enclosed in an arched wooden frame bordered on three sides by architectural or floral elements set against a gold background 32 smaller miniatures each framed in a wooden border and 43 decorated initials of varying sizes Every folio is adorned with wide borders enriched with floral motifs insects exotic animals or architectural ornaments The miniatures execution demonstrates the mastery of the Flemish artists from the workshop of Simon Bening a renowned Flemish illuminator who lived between the 15th and 16th centuries The manuscript likely remained in Valencia for at least four centuries after its patron's death and was probably sold during the Spanish Civil War In the 19th century it was owned by Leon Gruel a famous Parisian bookbinder as evidenced by the inscription GRUEL in red capital letters on the title page Consequently the binding is not original but a later addition as was often the case at the time It was executed in Paris in the second half of the 19th century by the renowned Gruel bindery The manuscript later came into the possession of Peter Mari in New York City Henry Walters of Baltimore acquired it from George Richmond a New York bookseller between 1903 and 1931 the year it became part of the museum collection
