19th Century Art Trade Version:

Art Crossing Borders Jan Dirk Baetens, Dries Lyna, 2019-02-11 Art Crossing Borders offers a thought provoking analysis of the internationalisation of the art market during the long nineteenth century Twelve experts dealing with a wide variety of geographical temporal and commercial contexts explore how the gradual integration of art markets structurally depended on the simultaneous rise of nationalist modes of thinking in unexpected and ambiguous ways By presenting a radically international research perspective Art Crossing Borders offers a crucial contribution to the field of art market studies Art and Modern Copyright Elena Cooper, 2018-08-16 The first in depth study of the history of copyright protecting the visual arts uncovering long forgotten narratives of copyright history and reflecting on how those sharpen the critical lens through which we view copyright today It will appeal to copyright lawyers scholars and policy makers as well as to art historians and curators Masterpieces of European Painting, 1800-1920, in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Kathryn Calley Galitz, 2007 Spanish Art in Britain and Ireland, 1750-1920 Enriqueta Harris, 2010 This is a study wholly devoted to the reception of Spanish art in Britain and Ireland It examines the sources and extent of knowledge of Spanish art in the British Isles during an age of increasing contacts particularly in the aftermath of the Peninsular War Art in Reproduction Robert Verhoogt, 2007 This illuminating study examines the cultural meaning of artistic reproduction in a refreshingly new context through its consideration of how three artists managed the reproduction of their work A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings VI Ernst van de Wetering, 2014-11-11 A revised survey of Rembrandt's complete painted oeuvre The question of which 17th century paintings in Rembrandt's style were actually painted by Rembrandt himself had already become an issue during his lifetime It is an issue that is still hotly disputed among art historians today The problem arose because Rembrandt had numerous pupils who learned the art of painting by imitating their master or by assisting him with his work as a portrait painter He also left pieces unfinished to be completed by others The question is how to determine which works were from Rembrandt's own hand Can we for example define the criteria of quality that would allow us to distinguish the master's work from that of his followers Do we yet have methods of investigation that would deliver objective evidence of authenticity To what extent do research techniques used in the physical sciences help Or are we after all still dependent on the subjective expert eye of the connoisseur The book provides answers to these questions Prof Ernst van de Wetering the author of our forthcoming book which deals with these questions has been closely involved in all aspects of this research since 1968 the year the renowned Rembrandt Research Project RRP was founded In particular he played an important role in developing new criteria for authentication Van de Wetering was also witness to the way the often overly zealous tendency to doubt the authenticity of Rembrandt's paintings got out of hand In this book he re attributes to the master a substantial number of unjustly rejected Rembrandts He also was closely involved in the re discovery of a considerable number of lost or completely unknown works by Rembrandt The verdicts of earlier specialists including the majority of members of the original RRP up to 1989 were based on connoisseurship the self confidence in one s ability to recognise a specific artist s style and hand Over the years Van de Wetering has carried out seminal research into 17th century studio practice and ideas about art current in Rembrandt s time In this book he demonstrates the fallibility of traditional connoisseurship especially in the case of Rembrandt who was par excellence a searching artist The methodological implications of this critical view are discussed in an introductory chapter which relates the history of the developments in this turbulent field of research Van de Wetering s account of his own involvement in it makes this book a lively and sometimes unexpectedly personal account The catalogue section presents a chronologically ordered survey of Rembrandt s entire painted oeuvre of 336 paintings richly illustrated and annotated For all the paintings re attributed in this book extensive commentaries have been included that provide a multi faceted new insight into Rembrandt s world and the world of art historical research Rembrandt s Paintings Revisited is the concluding sixth volume of A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings Volumes I V 1982 1986 1989 2005 2010 It can also be read as a revisionary critique of the first three Volumes published by the old RRP team up till 1989 and of Gerson s influential survey of Rembrandt s painted oeuvre of 1968 69 At the same time the book is designed as an independent overview that can be used on the basis that anyone seeking more detailed information will be referred to the five previous digital versions of the Volumes and the detailed catalogues published in the meantime by the various museums with collections of Rembrandt paintings This work of art history and art research should belong in the library of every serious art historical institute university or museum

Crafting the Woman Professional in the Long Nineteenth Century Kyriaki Hadjiafxendi, Patricia Zakreski, 2016-05-13 Over the course of the nineteenth century women in Britain participated in diverse and prolific forms of artistic labour As they created objects and commodities that blurred the boundaries between domestic and fine art production they crafted subjectivities for themselves as creative workers By bringing together work by scholars of literature painting music craft and the plastic arts this collection argues that the constructed and contested nature of the female artistic professional was a notable aspect of debates about aesthetic value and the impact of industrial technologies All the essays in this volume set up a productive inter art dialogue that complicates conventional binary divisions such as amateur and professional public and private artistry and industry in order to provide a more nuanced understanding of the relationship between gender artistic labour and creativity in the period Ultimately how women faced the pragmatics of their own creative labour as they pursued vocations trades and professions in the literary marketplace and related art industries reveals the different ideological positions surrounding the transition of women from industrious amateurism to professional artistry

Wilhelm Bode and the Art Market, 2022-12-05 The professional career and success of Wilhelm Bode 1845 1929 relied on the business of connoisseurship Like other contemporary art historians involved in the commerce of art he was entangled in the reciprocal dynamics and interdependencies of the nascent discipline of art history connoisseurship and the art trade The volume introduces new material and a fresh perspective on Bode's strategic participation in the Western art market exposing the particular consequences of these entanglements on the birth of the art historical canon and showcasing his complex agency within the art marketplace of the late nineteenth and the early twentieth centuries     Athanasius Raczyński (1788-1874). Aristocrat, Diplomat, and Patron of the Arts Michał Mencfel, 2022-04-04 This book depicts the long rich life and wide ranging work of Count Athanasius Raczyński 1788-1874 By exploring his complex personality his processes of thought and his accomplishments it reveals a man at once a wealthy aristocrat a Pole in the Prussian diplomatic service an active participant in and perceptive observer and critical commentator on political life a connoisseur and art collector of European renown and the author of ground breaking studies on German and Portuguese art in short a distinguished and fascinating nineteenth century figure     NDA/NA General Knowledge Study Notes [English Edition] ,     British Art and the First World War, 1914-1924 James Fox, 2015-07-30 Overturning decades of scholarly orthodoxies James Fox makes a bold new argument about the First World War's cultural consequences     A Regulatory Framework for the Art Market? Anna Bolz, 2022-11-24 This book addresses practical issues in connoisseurship and authentication as well as the legal implications that arise when an artwork's authenticity is challenged In addition the standards and processes of authentication are critically examined and the legal complications which can inhibit the expression of expert opinions are discussed The notion of authenticity has always commanded the attention of art market participants and the general art minded public alike Coinciding with this forgery is often considered to be the world's most glamorous crime packed with detective stories that are usually astonishing and often bizarre The research includes findings by economists sociologists art historians lawyers academics and practitioners all of which yield insights into the mechanics and peculiarities of the art business and explain why it works so differently from other markets However this book will be of interest not only to academics but to everyone interested in questions of authenticity forgery and connoisseurship At the same time one of its main aims is to advocate best practices in the art market and to stress the importance of cooperation among all disciplines with a stake in it The results are intended to offer guidance to art market stakeholders legal practitioners and art historians alike while also promoting mutual understanding and cooperation     Spaces of Connoisseurship Alison Clarke, 2022-07-18 In Spaces of Connoisseurship Alison Clarke explores the who where and how of judging Old Master paintings in the nineteenth century British art trade She describes how the staff at family art dealers Thomas Agnew Sons Agnew's and London's National Gallery took advantage of emerging technologies such as the railways and photography Through encounters with pictures in a range of locations both private and public these art market actors could build up the visual memory and necessary expertise to compare artworks and judge them in terms of attribution condition and beauty Also explored are the display tactics adopted by both commercial outfit and art museum to showcase pictures once acquired In a time of ever spiralling art prices this book tackles the question of why some paintings are preferred over others and exactly how art experts reach their judgements
