2000 Movies The 1940s:

2000 Movies Robin Cross, 1985      2000 Movies, the 1940's Robin Cross, 1985 Presents a comprehensive visual history of the films of the 1940s produced by Hollywood British and European studios      American Cinema of the 2000s Timothy Corrigan, 2012-04-15 The decade from 2000 to 2009 is framed at one end by the traumatic catastrophe of the 9 11 attacks on the World Trade Center and at the other by the election of the first African American president of the United States In between the United States and the world witnessed the rapid expansion of new media and the Internet such natural disasters as Hurricane Katrina political uprisings around the world and a massive meltdown of world economies Amid these crises and revolutions American films responded in multiple ways sometimes directly reflecting these turbulent times and sometimes indirectly couching history in traditional genres and stories In American Cinema of the 2000s essays from ten top film scholars examine such popular series as the groundbreaking Matrix films and the gripping adventures of former CIA covert operative Jason Bourne new offbeat films like Juno and the resurgence of documentaries like Michael Moore's Fahrenheit 9 11 Each essay demonstrates the complex ways in which American culture and American cinema are bound together in subtle and challenging ways      Sound in the American Horror Film Jeffrey Bullins, 2024-07-11 The crack of thunder a blood curdling scream creaking doors or maybe complete silence Sounds such as these have helped frighten and startle horror movie audiences for close to a century Listen to a Universal classic like Dracula or Frankenstein and you will hear a very different soundtrack from contemporary horror films So how did we get from there to here What scared audiences then compared to now This examination of the horror film's soundtrack builds on film sound and genre scholarship to demonstrate how horror perhaps more than any other genre utilizes sound to manipulate audience response Beginning with the Universal pictures of the early 1930s and moving through the next nine decades it explores connections and contrasts throughout the genre's technical and creative evolution New enthusiasts or veteran fans of such varied films as The Mummy Cat People The Day the Earth Stood Still Psycho Halloween A Nightmare on Elm Street Scream The Conjuring Paranormal Activity and A Quiet Place will find plenty to explore and perhaps a new sonic appreciation within these pages      Movie Comedians of the 1950s Wes D. Gehring, 2016-10-27 The 1950s were a transitional period for film comedians The artistic suppression of the McCarthy era and the advent of television often resulted in a dumbing down of motion pictures Cartoonist turned director Frank Tashlin contributed a funny but cartoonish effect through his work with comedians like Jerry Lewis and Bob Hope A new vanguard of comedians appeared without stock comic garb or make up fresh faces not easily pigeonholed as merely comedians such as Tony Randall Jack Lemmon and Tony Curtis Some traditional comedians like Charlie Chaplin Red Skelton and Danny Kaye continued their shtick though with some evident tweaking This book provides insight into a misunderstood decade of film history with an examination of the personality comedians The talents of Dean Martin and Bob Hope are reappraised and the dumb blonde stereotype as applied to Judy Holliday and Marilyn Monroe is deconstructed      Historical
