200 Mile Race Of The Junior Car Club:

The 200 Mile Race of the Junior Car Club, 1921-1938, Etc. [With Plates and Maps.] William Charles Boddy, 1947 The 200 Mile Race of the Junior Car Club, 1921-1938 William Boddy, 1947 The All-British Marendaz Special Graham Skillen, 2018-11-10 Includes 132 black and white and colour photographs This is the story of Captain Marendaz a pilot in the RFC in the Great War and his life as a manufacturer of cars in the 1920s and 1930s when he competed extensively at Brooklands and elsewhere before moving on to designing and building aircraft He was closely associated with Stirling Moss's parents and Kaye Don being involved in trialling and record breaking with his own cars and the American Graham Paige His passage through life was not smooth being frequently coloured by disputes ending up with him being arrested under the notorious Category 18B regulations in 1940 causing him to move to South Africa after the war where trouble followed him before his return to England in 1972 The book also contains a considerable number of first hand accounts by people who worked for Captain Marendaz of life in a small car and aircraft factory before the war giving a revealing insight into the social history of the period His sports cars are attractive with good lines a point brought out in the many illustrations taken in period and more recently of survivors His correspondence with the author and others provides an insight into his controversial life A Race with Love and Death Richard Williams, 2020-03-19 A tragic age and a tragic character both seemingly compelled to destroy themselves a chilling reminder of how little control we have over our fates Damon Hill One of the greatest motor racing stories Nick Mason Timely vivid and enthralling it's unputdownable Miranda Seymour author of The Bugatti Queen Dick Seaman was the archetypal dashing motorsport hero of the 1930s the first Englishman to win a race for Mercedes Benz and the last Grand Prix driver to die at the wheel before the outbreak of the Second World War Award winning author Richard Williams reveals the remarkable but now forgotten story of a driver whose battles against the leading figures of motor racing's golden age inspired the post war generation of British champions The son of wealthy parents educated at Rugby and Cambridge Seaman grew up in a privileged world of house parties jazz and fast cars But motor racing was no mere hobby it became such an obsession that he dropped out of university to pursue his ambitions squeezing money out of his parents to buy better cars When he was offered a contract with the world beating state sponsored Mercedes team in 1937 he signed up despite the growing political tensions between Britain and Germany A year later he celebrated victory in the German Grand Prix with the beautiful 18 year old daughter of the founder of BMW Their wedding that summer would force a split with his family a costly rift that had not been closed six months later when he crashed in the rain while leading at Spa dying with his divided loyalties seemingly unresolved He was just 26 years old A Race with Love and Death is a gripping tale of speed romance and tragedy Set in an era of rising tensions where the urge to live each moment to the full never seemed more important it is a richly evocative story that grips from first to last Tony Robinson Ian Wagstaff, 2012 The 1950s and 1960s were a revolutionary period in motor sport history and there are few left who were as close to Formula
