Blessings Of Pilgrimage:

The Blessings of Pilgrimage Robert G. Ousterhout, 1990 Blessings for the Fast Paced and Cyberspaced William Fitzgerald, 2000

The increasingly frenetic pace of our cyberworld compels us to cultivate a spirituality of technology and that spirituality needs to place us squarely on a blessing path This book helps us hold an awareness that whatever direction we take whether on the information highway or a busy freeway we carry a blessing with us Blessings for the Fast Paced and Cyberspaced has built in opportunities to reflect on and savor our varied blessings It invites us and enables us to slow down enough to be nourished by the holy dark and by the wisdom of the Celtic Native American and Jewish berakhah blessing paths even by Feng Shui and the findings of modern physics It helps us see ourselves as pilgrims walking on sacred ground in the midst of our busyness and to pray on the way to deadlines

Blessing the World Derek A. Rivard, 2009

Blessings were an integral and vital element of medieval Christian life and worship Benedictions for homes and workplaces the knight and the pilgrim the city under siege and the fetus in the womb are but a small sample of the multitudinous and fascinating extra sacramental blessings that fill the leaves of the liturgical books of the medieval Latin Church While commonly acknowledged as a crucial element in the life of medieval people the meaning and importance of these blessings for their authors and audiences have been frequently overlooked by liturgical and historical scholarship which has focused instead on the textual transmission and long term changes in the blessings and the rituals surrounding them This present work corrects this omission by examining these blessings with modern eyes and a new methodology In Blessing the World Derek A Rivard studies liturgical blessing and its role in the religious life of Christians during the central and later Middle Ages with a particular focus on the blessings of the Franco Roman liturgical tradition from the tenth to late thirteenth centuries Through a careful and extensive study of more than ninety such blessings many of them translated for the first time and accessible to a readership beyond specialists in medieval liturgy the author argues that medieval blessings were composed as a direct response to the needs anxieties beliefs and fears of the laity and therefore these texts represent a rich and largely untapped source for the study of lay piety and of ritual in medieval Europe Effectively drawing upon anthropology ritual studies the phenomenology of religion and traditional textual study Rivard explores the rich themes of medieval piety that flow throughout the blessings in order to produce a new understanding of the blessing as an attempt to tap the power of the sacred for use in daily life Benedictions for spaces places persons items and events are each studied in turn to produce this new understanding of these blessings and in the process these petitions and rituals reveal much about larger issues of medieval people s cosmology their perceived role in their cosmos their conceptions of God and their connections to the divine and to the spiritual powers of God s creation

ABOUT THE AUTHOR Derek A Rivard is associate professor of history at Cottey College

PRAISE FOR THE BOOK Blessing the World analyzes the texts of dozens of these blessings in order to explore how medieval Christians conceived of God and their own place within sacred history This textual focus is the book s strength and the author provides English translations of blessings from the tenth to the sixteenth centuries including the original Latin in footnotes thereby making available to readers a rich source of these materials Kathleen Kamerick The Medieval Review

Rivard's study of medieval blessing rituals sheds helpful light on the ways that medieval churchmen and their flocks viewed their relationship to God to nature and to their society James A Brundage Church History Muslim and Catholic Pilgrimage Practices Albertus Bagus Laksana, 2016-04-29 Exploring the distinctive nature and role of local pilgrimage traditions among Muslims and Catholics Muslim and Catholic Pilgrimage Practices draws particularly on south central Java Indonesia In this area the hybrid local Muslim pilgrimage culture is shaped by traditional Islam the Javano Islamic sultanates and the Javanese culture with its strong Hindu Buddhist heritage This region is also home to a vibrant Catholic community whose identity formation has occurred in a way that involves complex engagements with Islam as well as Javanese culture In this respect local pilgrimage tradition presents itself as a rich milieu in which these complex engagements have been taking place between Islam Catholicism and Javanese culture Employing a comparative theological and phenomenological analysis this book reveals the deeper religio cultural and theological import of pilgrimage practice in the identity formation and interaction among Muslims and Catholics in south central Java In a wider context it also sheds light on the larger dynamics of the complex encounter between Islam Christianity and local cultures
