Blood Work Selected Prose:

Selected Prose Works of G.E. Lessing Gotthold Ephraim Lessing, 1879 The Stamp of Class Gary Lenhart, 2006 The Stamp of Class is about reading poetry with an awareness of class and its themes While numerous works have taken up the question of race and gender as they relate to literary creation no single book has probed the interplay between class and American poetry The nine essays in Gary Lenhart's book deal with the question of class as reflected in the works of Tracie Morris Tillie Olsen Melvin Tolson William Carlos Williams Walt Whitman and others The work is rooted in the author's own experiences as a working class poet and teacher and is the result of more than a decade of exploration Mother Reader Moyra Davey, 2011-01-04 The intersection of motherhood and creative life is explored in these writings on mothering that turn the spotlight from the child to the mother herself Here in memoirs testimonials diaries essays and fiction mothers describe first hand the changes brought to their lives by pregnancy childbirth and mothering Many of the writers articulate difficult and socially unsanctioned maternal anger and ambivalence In Mother Reader motherhood is scrutinized for all its painful and illuminating subtleties and addressed with unconventional wisdom and candor What emerges is a sense of a community of writers speaking to and about each other out of a common experience and a compilation of extraordinary literature never before assembled in a single volume The Creative Crone Sylvia Henneberg, 2010 Henneberg shows how these writers offer radically different but richly complementary strategies for breaking the silence surrounding age Rich provides an approach to aging so strongly intertwined with other political issues that its complexity may keep us from immediately identifying age as one of her chief concerns On the other hand Sartre's direct treatment of aging sensitizes us to its importance and helps us see its significance in such writings as Rich's Meanwhile Rich's efforts to politicize age create stimulating contexts for Sartre's work Henneberg explores elements of these writers' individual poems that develop themes of aging including imagery and symbol the construction of a persona and the uses of rhythms to reinforce the themes She also includes analyses of their fiction and nonfiction works and draws ideas from age studies by scholars such as Margaret Morganroth Gullette Kathleen Woodward and Thomas Cole From publisher description Very Collected Poems Ron Padgett, 2025-11-18 Over sixty years of poems celebrating one of the most dynamic careers in twentieth and twenty-first century American poetry Gathering a lifetime of poetry Ron Padgett's Very Collected Poems is the ultimate record of the Pulitzer Prize finalist's oeuvre newly updated since the sold out first edition of 2013 Padgett's poems reverberate with his love of poetry his musings on artists and musicians from Andrew Marvell to Woody Guthrie to his personal friendships with Kenneth Koch and Joe Brainard alongside his poems involving family and the magic of just being alive By turns imaginative and witty and then simple and direct Padgett's mercurial work offers readers the pleasure of his surprising curiosity and generous spirit How to be Perfect Ron Padgett, 2007 Required reading for humans From Bourgeois to Boogie Vershawn Ashanti Young, Bridget Harris Tsemo, 2011 Vershawn Ashanti Young and Bridget Harris Tsemo collect a diverse assortment of pieces that examine the generational shift in the perception of the black middle class from the serious moniker of bourgeois to the more playful sardonic boogie Including such senior cultural workers as Amiri Baraka and Houston Baker as well as younger scholars like Damion Waymer and Candice Jenkins this significant collection contains essays poems visual art and short stories that examine the complex web of representations that define the contemporary black middle class

The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated womens daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune womens and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike

Rebound Michael Hinds, Stephen Matterson, 2004 This pioneering collection of new essays challenges established modes of reading American lyric poetry by orientating interpretation so that it incorporates an awareness of the book context in which individual poems are embedded These essays critically explore individual books by Walt Whitman Wallace Stevens Robert Frost Ezra Pound Hart Crane William Carlos Williams Randall Jarrell Robert Lowell Adrienne Rich Susan Howe Lyn Hejinian and Jorie Graham and consider the book as a restrictive binding concept for Emily Dickinson and some contemporary American poets Rebound both provides innovative readings of supposedly familiar poets and books and also generates critical strategies for renewed engagement with American poetry traditions As a speaking whole Rebound addresses a rich variety of topics intentionality as hermeneutic the architecture and artefacture of the book gender identity and the book the positioning of the book in postmodern poetics the consequences of textual history for interpretation and reception and the American poetry book as metonym for nation Contributors Domhnall Mitchell Eldrid Herrington Charles Altieri Stephen Matterson Stephen Wilson Maria Irene Ramalho De Sousa Santos Ron Callan Michael Hinds Gareth Reeves Lucy Collins Justin Quinn Nerys Williams and Nick Selby Charles Bernstein's The Book as Architecture is reprinted as an Afterword Insult and the Making of the Gay Self Didier Eribon, 2004-07-07 Published in English for the first time Didier Eribon's well received and celebrated work on a philosophy of and examination of gay life H.D. and Sapphic Modernism 1910-1950 Diana Collecott, 1999-11-25 Diana Collecott proposes that Sappho's presence in H.D.'s work is as significant as that of Homer in Pound's and of Dante in Eliot's Caught Between Cultures, 2021-07-26 The essays in this collection on Canada the USA Australia and the UK question and discuss the issues of cross cultural identities and the crossing of boundaries both geographical and conceptual All of the authors have experienced cross culturalism directly and are conscious that positions of double vision which allow the to participate positively in two or more cultures are privileges that only a few can celebrate Most women find themselves caught between cultures They become involved in a day to day struggle in an attempt to negotiate identities which can affirm the self and at the same time strengthen the ties which unites the self with others Theoretical issues on cross culturalism therefore can either liberate or constrict the The essays here illustrate how women's writing negotiates this dualism through a colourful and complex weaving of words thoughts and experiences both pleasurable and painful into texts quilts rainbows The metaphors abound The connecting thread through their writing and indeed in these essays is the concept of belonging a theoretical emotional composite of being and longing Home too assumes a variety of meanings it is no longer a static geographical place but many places It is also a place elsewhere in the imagination a mythic place of desire linked to origin Policies of multiculturalism can throw up more problems than they solve In Canada the difficulties surrounding the cross cultural debate have given rise to a state of messy imbroglia Notions of authenticity move dangerously close to essentialist identities Double vision is characteristic of peoples who have been uprooted and displaced such as Australian Aboriginal writers of mixed race abducted during childhood Passing for black or white is full of complications as in the case of Pauline Johnson who passed as an authentic Indian People with hyphenated citizenship such as Japanese Canadian can be either free of national ties or trapped in subordination to the dominant culture in these visible minorities it is the status of being female or coloured female that is so often ultimately rendered invisible Examination of Canadian anthologies on cross cultural writing by women reveals a crossing of boundaries of gender and genre race and ethnicity and in some cases national boundaries in an attempt to connect with a diasporic consciousness Cross cultural women writers in the USA may stress experience and unique collective history while others prefer to focus on aesthetic links and literary connections which ultimately silence difference Journeying from the personal space of the into the collective space of the we is exemplified in a reading of texts by June Jordan and Minnie Bruce Pratt For these writers identity is in process It is a painful negotiation but one which can transform knowledge into action Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies Catalogue of a Library Peter Hastie,1877 Walk on the Wild Side Nicholas Christopher,1994 Collection of 115 poems by sixty poets representing more than twenty cities across the United States Discrepant Dislocations Mary E. John,2023-04-28 Discrepant Dislocations Feminism Theory and Postcolonial Histories explores the evolving intersections of feminist theory with postcolonial histories offering a critical examination of the challenges that shape feminist thought across different geopolitical contexts The book spans a range of intellectual and political landscapes particularly focusing on the tensions between feminist scholarship in the United States and India Drawing from the insights of third world intellectuals who have engaged with Western theories like poststructuralism it interrogates the complexities of the postcolonial as both a term and a concept Rather than resolving its varied meanings the book engages with the tensions and discrepancies inherent in these theories particularly how they manifest within the power dynamics between the West and the postcolony By focusing on the experiences of Western domination the author highlights how these intellectual and political forces continue to shape feminist thought globally even as feminist agendas seek to challenge these very systems of power The essays within this collection examine a wide array of issues from the position of third world feminists in the West to the challenges of translating feminist theory into diverse cultural contexts The study critically engages with the rise of feminist theory in the U S particularly in the eighties and nineties and its connection to race class and gender debates These discussions are framed within a historical and genealogical perspective showing how these terms have been shaped and constrained by Western academic practices Transitioning from the U S to India the book also explores the national location of feminist movements examining how postindependence Indian feminism navigates the complexities of global and local power relations Ultimately the book calls for a more self reflexive and international feminist theory that acknowledges the unequal power dynamics between nations and fosters a more accountable and nuanced global feminist discourse This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1996 The FSG Poetry Anthology Jonathan Galassi,Robyn Creswell,2025-09-23 To honor FSG s 75th anniversary here is a unique anthology celebrating the riches and variety of its poetry list past present and future Poetry has been at the heart of Farrar Straus and Giroux s identity ever since Robert Giroux joined the fledgling company in the mid 1950s soon bringing T S Eliot John Berryman Robert Lowell and Elizabeth Bishop onto the list These extraordinary poets and their successors have been essential in helping define FSG as a publishing house with a unique place in American letters The FSG Poetry
