Blood For Dracula Criterion Collection:

Postmodern Vampires Sorcha Ní Fhlainn, 2019-04-25 Postmodern Vampires Film Fiction and Popular Culture is the first major study to focus on American cultural history from the vampire's point of view. Beginning in 1968, Ní Fhlainn argues that vampires move from the margins to the centre of popular culture as representatives of the anxieties and aspirations of their age. Mapping their literary and screen evolution on to the American Presidency from Richard Nixon to Donald Trump, this essential critical study chronicles the vampire's blood ties to distinct socio-political movements and cultural decades in the late twentieth and early twenty-first centuries. Through case studies of key texts including Interview with the Vampire, The Lost Boys, Blade, Twilight, Let Me In, True Blood, and numerous adaptations of Dracula, this book reveals how vampires continue to be exemplary barometers of political and historical change in the American imagination. It is essential reading for scholars and students in Gothic and Horror Studies, Film Studies, and American Studies, and for anyone interested in the articulate undead.

Comedy-Horror Films Bruce G. Hallenbeck, 2009-08-11 Fun and fright have long been partners in the cinema, dating back to the silent film era and progressing to the Scary Movie franchise and other recent releases. This guide takes a comprehensive look at the comedy horror movie genre from the earliest stabs at melding horror and hilarity during the nascent days of silent film to its full-fledged development with The Bat in 1926 to the Abbott and Costello films pitting the comedy duo against Frankenstein's Monster, The Mummy, and other Universal Studio monsters, continuing to such recent cult hits as Shaun of the Dead and Black Sheep. Selected short films such as Tim Burton's Frankenweenie are also covered. Photos and promotional posters, interviews with actors, and a filmography are included.

Video Watchdog, 1997 Vampire Films Around the World James Aubrey, 2020-10-23 Vampires are arguably the most popular and most paradoxical of gothic monsters: life draining yet passionate, feared yet fascinating, dead yet immortal. Vampire content produces exquisitely suspenseful stories that combined with motion picture filmmaking reveal much about the cultures that enable vampire film production and the audiences they attract. This collection of essays is generously illustrated and ranges across sixteen cultures on five continents, including the films Let the Right One In, What We Do in the Shadows, Cronos, and We Are the Night, among many others. Distinctly different kinds of European vampires have originated in Ireland, Germany, Sweden, and Serbia. North American vampires are represented by films from Mexico, Canada, and the USA. Middle Eastern locations include Tangier, Morocco, and a fictional city in Iran. South Asia has produced Bollywood vampire films, and East Asian vampires are represented by films from Korea, China, and Japan. Some of the most recent vampire movies have come from Australia and New Zealand. These essays also look at vampire films through lenses of gender, post-colonialism, camp, and otherness, as well as the evolution of the vampiric character in cinema worldwide, together constituting a mosaic of the cinematic undead.
