Blood Lines Long And Short Stories:

Blood Lines Ruth Rendell, 1996 This is a haunting dramatic collection of long short stories which reveal the amazing range of one of Britain's major novelists It features the first Wexford short story to have appeared since Means of Evil

Blood Lines Ruth Rendell, 1996 Bloodlines and other Stories Joyce Russell, 2012-08-15 Does a child come wailing into this world with the patterns that define it already beating in the blood Do daughters ever believe that mother knows best and can a father come to respect the skills of a son This collection of stories explores the ties that bind the generations together It dips into the quiet beauty and the horrors of keeping those bonds intact There's lust and loyalty joy and exploitation innocence and trust but deep in the heart of each story from daughter to father perhaps or mother to son there is always the spark of love

Bloodlines Janice Harrell, 2023-11-21 Ari and Paul Montclair aren't like other teenagers in this first novel of a spinetingling series about a family secret that's about to be spilled Sixteen year old twins Ari and Paul Montclair have grown up in New Orleans without a father The only family they've ever known is their mother and a mysterious aunt in Washington DC And when their mother is killed in a tragic car wreck Aunt Gabrielle is the only person who can help them Whisked away from their beloved home Ari and Paul find themselves in a world of wealth and privilege Aunt Gabrielle supposedly teaches night classes but she lives in a beautiful townhouse drives an expensive car and sends the twins to a prestigious high school Her days are spent taking beauty sleeps But who are Ari and Paul to judge Both see numbers in colors and have frightening visions Their family just might be a little weird Or they could be part of something much bigger and bloodier than they ever could have imagined Don't miss Bloodlust the second book in the Vampire Twins series Bloodlines Of The Illuminati Daniel Lazar, The Paradox of Omniscience. Short Stories Arunas Bartusevicius,

Melancholic and introspective look into the life and the complexities of human interaction Bloodlines Jan Burke, 2005-01-10 The year is 1958 O Connor a young reporter with the Las Piernas News Express is desperate to discover who has perpetrated a savage attack on his mentor Jack Corrigan In and out of consciousness Corrigan claims to have witnessed the burial of a bloodstained car on a farm but his reputation as a heavy drinker calls his strange story into question In a seemingly unrelated mystery a yacht bearing four members of the wealthy Ducane family disappears during a storm off the coast An investigation finds that the Ducane home has been broken into a nursemaid has been killed and Max the infant heir has gone missing Corrigan recovers his health but despite a police investigation and his own tireless inquiries the mysteries of the buried car and the whereabouts of Maxwell Ducane haunt him until his death Twenty years after that fateful night in her first days as a novice reporter working for managing editor O Connor Irene Kelly covers the groundbreaking ceremony for a shopping center which unexpectedly yields the unearthing of a buried car In the trunk are human remains Are those of the infant heir among them If so who is the young man who has recently changed his name to Max Ducane Again the trail goes maddeningly perhaps suspiciously cold Until today Irene now married to homicide detective Frank Harriman is a veteran reporter facing the impending closing of the Las Piernas News Express With circulation down and young reporters fresh out of journalism school replacing longtime staffers Irene can't help but wish for the good old days when she worked with O Connor So when the baffling kidnap burial case resurfaces Irene's tenacious love for her mentor and journalistic integrity far outweigh any fears or trepidation Determined to make a final splash for her beloved paper and solve the mystery that plagued O Connor until his death Irene pursues a story that reunites her with her past and may end her career and her life

Written Under the Skin Carli Coetzee, 2019 In this book the author argues that a younger generation of South Africans is developing important and innovative ways of understanding South African pasts and that challenge the narratives that have over the last decades been informed by notions of forgiveness and reconciliation The author uses the image of history rich blood to explore these approaches to intergenerational memory Blood under the skin is a carrier of embodied and gendered histories and using this image the chapters revisit older archives as well as analyse contemporary South African cultural and literary forms The emphasis on blood challenges the privileged status skin has had as explanatory category in thinking about identity and instead emphasises intergenerational transfer and continuity The argument is that a younger generation is disputing and debating the terms through which to understand contemporary South Africa as well as for interpreting the legacies of the past that remain under the visible layer of skin The chapters each concern blood Mandela's prison cell as laboratory for producing bloodless freedom the kinship relations created and resisted in accounts of Eugene de Kock in prison Ruth First's concern with information leaks in her accounts of her time in prison the first human to human heart transplant and its relation to racialised attempts to salvage white identity the Fallist moment Abantu book festival and activist scholarship and creative art works that use blood as trope for thinking about change and continuity Carli Coetzee is Editor of the Journal of African Cultural Studies Her publications include Accented Futures Language Activism and the Ending of Apartheid Wits University Press 2013 and the edited collection Afropolitanism Reboot Routledge 2017 She co edited The Handbook of African Literature Routledge 2019 with Moradewun Adejunmobi and Negotiating the Past The Making of Memory in South Africa Oxford University Press 1998 with Sarah Nuttall Southern Africa South Africa Namibia Lesotho Zimbabwe and Swaziland Wits University Press

Epoch - Bloodlines, ARTHUR CONAN DOYLE Ultimate Collection: 23 Novels & 200+ Short Stories Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, 2024-01-16 Arthur Conan Doyle Ultimate Collection 23 Novels 200 Short Stories stands as an unparalleled anthology that encapsulates the prolific genius of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle This compendium offers readers a comprehensive journey through Conan Doyle's imaginative and intricately woven narratives characterized by his rich prose and keen observational detail Emphasizing the sharp interplay between rational deduction and the supernatural this collection reflects the Victorian era's fascination with both science and mystique. Classic tales featuring the legendary Sherlock Holmes are complemented by lesser-known gems showcasing Conan Doyle's versatility across genres such as historical fiction and adventure. Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, a physician by training, fused his scientific background with literary prowess to explore the human psyche and societal norms through his narratives. Born in 1859 in Edinburgh, his interests in evolution, spirituality, and criminology significantly shaped his storytelling style, making him a bridge between the empirical and the extraordinary. The creation of Sherlock Holmes not only revolutionized detective fiction but also mirrored Conan Doyle's engagement with contemporary issues of justice and morality. For lovers of classic literature, this immense collection is indispensable, serving both as an introduction to Doyle's groundbreaking contributions to forensic science in literature and a nostalgic revisit to familiar characters and plots. Its expansive range guarantees that readers will find themselves engrossed in tales that resonate with timeless themes of intrigue, morality, and human complexity. In this enriched edition, we have carefully created added value for your reading experience. A comprehensive Introduction outlines these selected works, unifying features, themes, or stylistic evolutions. The Author Biography highlights personal milestones and literary influences that shape the entire body of writing. A Historical Context section situates the works in their broader era, social currents, cultural trends, and key events that underpin their creation. A concise Synopsis Selection offers an accessible overview of the included texts, helping readers navigate plotlines and main ideas without revealing critical twists. A unified Analysis examines recurring motifs and stylistic hallmarks across the collection, tying the stories together while spotlighting the different works' strengths. Reflection questions inspire deeper contemplation of the author's overarching message, inviting readers to draw connections among different texts and relate them to modern contexts. Lastly, our hand-picked Memorable Quotes distill pivotal lines and turning points, serving as touchstones for the collection's central themes.
