Clarke, 2017-04-01 Most Blue Jays fans have taken in a game or two at Rogers Centre remember where they were when Joe Carter hit his World Series winning home run in 1993 and took in every moment of the Jays historic 2015 postseason run But only real fans know who spent two decades as the team's BJ Birdy mascot can name the opposing player who was once jailed for hitting a seagull with a thrown baseball at Exhibition Stadium or how long it takes to open the Rogers Centre roof 100 Things Blue Jays Fans Should Know Do Before They Die stands as the ultimate resource for true fans of Canada's sole major league baseball team Author Steve Clarke has collected every essential piece of Blue Jays knowledge and trivia as well as must do activities and ranks them all providing an entertaining and easy to follow checklist as readers progress on their way to fan superstardom This updated edition includes the Blue Jays recent success and revival including the push to the 2015 American League Championship Series and Josh Donaldson's MVP season Blue Jays 1, Expos 0 David

Luchuk, 2009-08-11 The 2001-2002 offseason was a tumultuous one for Major League Baseball The commissioner's move to contract two teams voted on and approved by league owners in a 28-2 vote left fans in several cities fearing for the future of their teams The Montreal Expos with a recent history of poor play and even poorer attendance seemed an obvious choice Canada's only other big league franchise the Toronto Blue Jays had voted in favor of the commissioner's proposal but seemed as likely a candidate as either of the teams targeted by owners This book examines the 2002 season of the Expos and the Blue Jays setting events against the backdrop of a long nurtured urban rivalry between Montreal and Toronto Chapters cover the summer of 2002 month by month supplementing on and off field events with a wealth of historical background and showing how competition placed the Expos and Blue Jays as well as their two host cities on permanently divergent paths
