Blue Finding Colors:

A Manual of Elementary Instruction, for the Use of Public and Private Schools and Normal Classes Edward Austin Sheldon, 1869 Finding Your Style In Pastel Jean Hiron, 2012-10-25

As artists we have choices. There are very few rules that apply across the board. We can create highly realistic paintings or perhaps more expressive paintings or paintings that have very little basis in reality including those that are totally non representational. We can record color as we see it or as we'd like it to be. As pastel artists we have even more choices. We can use a wide variety of pastels, strokes, surfaces and techniques to create many different looks. The choices we make form the framework of our individual style, our signature as artists. Any subscriber to The Pastel Journal realizes how varied the medium of pastel can be. For the experienced artist these articles are stimulating, offering possible ways to experiment with alternative approaches. For the beginner the panoply of choices can be overwhelming. Painting is primarily an intuitive process. But intuition is gained through study and experience. Part of my impetus in writing this book has been to create a more structured approach to help those fairly new to the medium understand its many possibilities. The book is aimed at all levels of pastel artists. Beginners will find a wealth of helpful information and intermediate artists will gain insight into how to take their work to another level and develop a style. Many advanced artists teach pastel the organization of ideas and the exercises included should be of assistance. I offer a variety of suggested approaches and sometimes make up terminology to describe my experiences with the medium. The instructions in the book are based on my preferences and the guidance that I offer my students. The diversity of styles and techniques evident in the paintings of contributing artists should make it clear, however, that there are many ways to successfully work in pastel. Having acknowledged the many possibilities I want to note a few musts. Representational paintings must be well drawn. Poor drawing skills cannot be overcome with lovely color or great technique. Likewise paintings must have strong compositions regardless of whether they are realistic, abstracted or non representational. Values must be properly interpreted to produce strong compositions and to use pastel to its full effect. And finally pastel paintings must sing. Whether the applications are light and airy or rich and painterly it should be clear that the artist is in control of the medium and is using it to produce his or her desired look. For years I have resisted suggestions that I write a book. As a landscape painter I knew that there were more authoritative books already available. And the growing popularity of pastel has led to so many resources including online blogs, a biennial convention and the wonderful Pastel Journal mentioned above. What could I add to this? My personal training in pastel has been from weeklong landscape workshops with some of the leading pastel painters in the country. As a teacher in a community college I am not teaching a particular style nor focusing on specific subject matter. Some of my students work with the landscape but others do portraits or figurative work while others prefer still life or work abstractly. In dealing with this mixture I've realized that there are different ways to approach one's use of color and this formed my first idea for creating a book. Furthermore as a teacher I've spent time experimenting with different surfaces.

pastel brands and techniques in order to make suggestions to students to help them find the look they want to achieve I do not teach students to paint the way I do but instead try to share my experience and help them develop their own individual style

How to Find Your Light of Ecstasy Within Billy Dugger, 2010-10-14 How to Find Your Light of Ecstasy Within In How to Find Your Light of Ecstasy Within author Billy Dugger offers readers a new and very effective way to simply commune with God and get the answers you need He explains in an everyday conversational style just how organic life actually got started on earth This is totally different than the evolution theory or the idea that we were created instantly as some believe The book is in three separate sections and is 550 pages long It also answers the three main questions Where did you come from Why are you here Where are you going The last section includes a very effective meditation technique that takes only a few seconds to use

Interpreting the Evolution of Atayal Tribal Textile Patterns Po Hsun Wang, Jie Li, 2025-07-02 This book elucidates findings from an anthropological study that analyzes the patterns of Taiwan s Atayal tribe s fabric in their ethnic dress codes By analyzing the changes and development of the patterns over time the authors draw fascinating conclusions regarding the geographical migration and intermarriage practices between indigenous minority groups in Taiwan s history The book brings new insights within East Asian linguistic anthropology in theorizing about the origins of legends and broader patterns of ethnic migration integrating the characteristics and relationships among Atayal fabrics and interpreting these relationships in connection with the flow of sub ethnic groups In doing so the book provides rich empirical evidence for anthropologists and migration scholars to better understand the movement of ethnic groups in Taiwan while also establishing a model for how studying textile design can be employed to establish such linkages The book shows that the composition and changes of ethnic minority patterns have their own internal logic and causes By studying this the authors demonstrate how such work might translate intangible and tangible culture into explicit and shareable knowledge and provide a compass for other anthropologists and researchers in the fields of visual and linguistic anthropology migration studies and ethnic and indigenous cultures in Asia and beyond
