Provence & the Côte D'Azur, 1999 Heritage, Ideology, and Identity in Central and Eastern Europe Matthew Rampley, 2012 Essays looking at heritage practices and the construction of the past along with how they can be used to build a national identity The preservation of architectural monuments has played a key role in the formation of national identities from the nineteenth century to the present The task of maintaining the collective memories and ideas of a shared heritage often focused on the historic built environment as the most visible sign of a link with the past The meaning of such monuments and sites has however often been the subject of keen dispute whose heritage is being commemorated by whom and for whom The answers to such questions are not always straightforward particularly in Central and Eastern Europe the recent history of which has been characterized by territorial disputes the large scale movement of peoples and cultural dispossession This volume considers the dilemmas presented by the recent and complex histories of European states such as Germany Greece Poland Hungary Romania and Bulgaria Examining the effect of the destruction of buildings by war the loss of territories or the unwanted built heritage of the Communist and Nazi regimes the contributors examine how architectural and urban sites have been created destroyed or transformed in the attempt to make visible a national heritage Matthew Rampley is Professor of History of Art at the University of Birmingham Contributors Matthew Rampley Juliet Kinchin Paul Stirton Susanne Jaeger Arnold Bartetzky Jacek Friedrich Tania Vladova George Karatzas Riitta Oittinen

The French Riviera Michael Nelson, 2016-11-07 The French Riviera A History ranges from the Terra Amata in Nice occupied from 380 000 years ago and one of the oldest inhabited prehistoric sites in the world through to settlement by Greeks Romans Franks Ostrogoths and Visigoths wars and revolutions to the establishment of the Silicon Valley of France in Sophia Antipolis in 1974 Michael Nelson shows the surprisingly cosmopolitan nature of the area in the early middle ages such as the story of the finishing school run by Frankish kings in the 7th century where Siagrius the ruler of the region had studied and where the son of King Edwin of Northumbria in England was also sent The Riviera was part of Provence in France for much of its history and was often a microcosm of France itself with many dynastic struggles and horrific blood letting Colour maps and plates illustrate The French Riviera A History and it is also full of fascinating anecdotes Examples include the loan of a guillotine by Nice to Grasse in the French Revolution Nice had no victims and Grasse had thirty and the occasion when Jean Moulin the leader of the French Resistance in World War II invited the Germans to the opening of an art gallery in Nice which he was using as a front In the nineteenth and twentieth century the British and Americans led tourism and the Riviera was described by Somerset Maugham as a sunny place for shady people The French Riviera A History is a fascinating look back over the Riviera's rich history Perfect to dip into or follow the whole historical journey in one sitting it will make the perfect addition to any history buff's bookcase
