Blue Horizons Five Star First Edition Romance Series:

Blue Horizons Irene Bennett Brown, 2001 Meg Brown knows that her new life at her road ranch Paragon Springs can truly begin until she severs all ties with the abusive husband she fled years before. Although fearful she returns to St Louis determined to find him and obtain a divorce. But Ted Malloy refuses, hoping that Meg's return will win him his dying father's favor and fortune. It's going to be a long fight and Meg can't afford to stay away from Kansas and a simmering range war. Reluctantly she places her destiny in the hands of her likable lawyer Hamilton Gibbs. Back in Kansas Meg continues to battle rancher Jack Ambler. And by the time Hamilton Gibbs wins Meg's divorce in St Louis he has also won her heart. Before long they're building a family in Paragon Springs. Then Meg brings the range hostilities to a breaking point by selling the farmers barbed wire to protect their crops from Ambler's cattle. On a wire cutting spree Jack Ambler goes too far, provided by Goodreads. American Book Publishing Record, 2003. Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003-04. Photoplay editions were usually hardcover reprints of novels that had been made into movies, illustrated with photographs from the film productions. Sometimes instead they were fictionized versions of film scripts rewritten in narrative form. Here is an annotated checklist of more than 500 horror and mystery photoplay novels and magazine fictionizations collected over a period of four decades. Photo-illustrated stories that are not strictly in the horror or mystery genres are included if they are linked to films with such stars as Lon Chaney, Boris Karloff, Bela Lugosi, or other genre figures. Mysteries are generally defined as novels or stories featuring a detective as the central character, although in some cases melodramas, thrillers, and film noir books having crime as a plot element are included. Science fiction and fantasy works and others having outre aspects are also within scope. With a few exceptions, the cut-off date for inclusion in the catalog is the year 1970. In an entertaining introductory essay, the author reflects on the attractions of assembling such a collection analyzes aspects of the social significance and aesthetic content of its books and draws many surprising inferences from their advertisements illustrations and marks of previous ownership The subsequent catalog is the first survey in the field to extend bibliographical coverage beyond books to movie tie in magazine stories Included in an appendix is the complete text of The Gorilla a short story version of a lost First National Film reprinted from a rare issue of Moving Picture Stories from 1927
