Middle Eastern Belongings Diane E. King, 2013-09-13 This book features chapters that examine the various ways of belonging in the Middle East Belonging can mean fitting in feeling at home feeling a part this kind of belonging is profoundly social Belongings can be possessions objects closely associated with one's deepest notions of identity Both kinds of belongings pertain to people and the kindreds ethnic groups and nations and or states they call their own Belongings of both kinds are more often than not emplaced and territorialized All of the chapters treat Middle Eastern collectivities as sites of anguished cultural projects All use metaphor national territory as woman national resolve as cactus and so on None is reductionistic belonging is rendered in its complexity with its agonies as well as its joys All could be identified with a growing genre of work on belonging At the heart of each are the bonds that comprise belonging Each one conveys both belonging's messiness and its joys and touches as much as it argues and elaborates This book was published as a special issue of Identities Global Studies in Culture and Power

Real World Faith Walter Brueggemann, 2023-09-12 Real World Faith articulates a faith that is effectively linked to our real world the world of our bodies and of the body politic The real world of our bodies causes us to be largely preoccupied with our health security dignity and sexuality and causes concern for food and shelter for ourselves and for our neighbors The real world of the body politic puts us in inescapable touch with issues of money power weapons policies treaties taxes and trade agreements These are the matters that occupy us most of the time on most of our days They are the proper agenda of our faith because our faith consists in trust in the One who governs our bodily life in the world Our interpretive work is to try to articulate the ways albeit hidden ways in which the agency and character of God make effective contact with our world This is real life faith

Living Devotions Mary Clark Moschella, 2008-01-01 Living Devotions explores how a particular community has creatively negotiated its religious bonds of connection in the context of immigration These matters cannot be studied in the abstract Religious practice is not something separate from the economic cultural and psychological dimensions of life but rather something integral which shapes and is being shaped by all of these other realities The author examines these dynamics through an ethnographic case study of the living devotions of a group of Italian Catholic immigrants to San Pedro California The narrative describes how the group s historical experiences of immigration and fishing find expression in their particular forms of prayer art artifacts and food The healing and transformative power of these shared religious practices is explored As contemporary theologians pastors and congregations seek to welcome and care for immigrants and other strangers in a shifting social landscape we need ways to engage in care full and attentive relationships The ethnographic method employed here suggests a way to lift up the voices of ordinary people allowing them to tell their own stories while piecing together emerging bits of theological wisdom and compelling care practices While the particular insights of any community are situated and specific theological reflection in one context can animate a broader discussion of transformative pastoral theology and practice

Shifting Grounds Paul Quigley,2014 The American Civil War brought with it a crisis of nationalism This text reinterprets southern conceptions of allegiance identity and citizenship within the contexts of antebellum American national identity and the transatlantic Age of Nationalism

The Gift of Generations Akiko Hashimoto,1996-06-13 Modern societies today contend with population dynamics that have never before existed As the number of older people grows these countries must determine how best to provide for the needs of this population The constraints are real fiscal and material resources are finite and must be shared in a way that is perceived as just As such societies confront the fundamental question of who gets what how and why and ultimately must reappraise the principles determining why some people are considered more worthy of help than others This study systematically explores the Japanese and American answers to this fundamental question This is the only US Japan comparative work of its kind utilizing systematically comparable data from both countries It also draws on interview material that presents the choices disappointments and satisfactions of old age in the individual s own words

The Practice and Representation of Reading in England James Raven,Helen Small,Naomi Tadmor,2007-09-27 Developments in cultural history and literary criticism have suggested alternative ways of addressing the interpretation of reading How did people read in the past Where and why did they read How were the manner and purpose of reading envisaged and recorded by contemporaries and why Drawing on fields as diverse as medieval pedagogy textual bibliography the history of science and social and literary history this collection of fourteen essays highlights both the singularity of personal reading experiences and the cultural conventions involved in reading and its perception An introductory essay offers an important critical assessment of the various contributions to the development of the subject in recent times This book constitutes a major addition to our understanding of the history of readers and reading

Bitter Fruit Keith Gordon Ford,2021-06-17 No church founder or planter likely intends to start a church with the stated goal of allowing abuse or abusing those within it Yet sadly and too often even in the best of churches abuse does occur The bitter fruit of abuse does not appear from nowhere Its origins the soil in which it grows and the structures that support it need be understood if we are to eradicate this fruit from within our churches and

Christian organizations Bitter Fruit Dysfunction and Abuse in the Local Church describes those psychologies social psychologies and inadequate theologies that are frequently true in churches that enable abuse regardless of the form the abuse may take It is vital that you understand these things if you are a pastor leader or lay person seeking to maintain a healthy church environment The Anglican Communion at a Crossroads Christopher Craig Brittain, Andrew McKinnon, 2018-04-17 Worldwide debates over issues of sexuality and gender have come to a head in recent years in mainline and evangelical churches with the Anglican Communion a worldwide network of churches that trace their practice to Canterbury and claim some 85 million members among the most publicly visible sites of contestation This thorough and compelling analysis of the conflicts within the Communion argues that they are symptoms of long simmering issues that must be addressed when Anglican bishops and archbishops meet at the 2020 Lambeth Conference To many the disagreements over such issues as LGBTQ clergy same sex marriage and women s ordination suggest an insurmountable crisis facing Anglicans one that may ultimately end the Communion Christopher Craig Brittain and Andrew McKinnon argue otherwise Drawing on extensive empirical research and interviews with influential Anglican leaders they show how these struggles stem from a complex interplay of factors notably the forces and effects of globalization new communications technology and previous decisions made by the Communion In clarifying both the theological arguments and social forces at play as the bishops and primates of the Anglican Communion prepare to set the Church s course for the next decade Brittain and McKinnon combine sociological and theological methodologies to provide both a nuanced portrait of Anglicanism in a transnational age and a primer on the issues with which the Lambeth Conference will wrestle Insightful informative and thought provoking The Anglican Communion at a Crossroads is an invaluable resource for understanding the debates taking place in this worldwide community Those interested in Anglicanism sexuality and the Christian tradition the sociology of religion and the evolving relationship between World Christianity and churches in the Global North will find it indispensable

Ethics and Medievalism Karl Fugelso, 2014 Essays on the modern reception of the Middle Ages built round the central theme of the ethics of medievalism Ethics in post medieval responses to the Middle Ages form the main focus of this volume The six opening essays tackle such issues as the legitimacy of reinventing medieval customs and ideas at what point the production and enjoyment of caricaturizing the Middle Ages become inappropriate how medievalists treat disadvantaged communities and the tension between political action and ethics in medievalism The eight subsequent articles then build on this foundation as they concentrate on capitalist motives for melding superficially incompatible narratives in medievalist video games Dan Brown s use of Dante s Inferno to promote a positivist transhumanist agenda disjunctures from medieval literature to medievalist film in portrayals of human sacrifice the influence of Beowulf on horror films and vice versa portrayals of war in Beowulf films socialism in William Morris s translation of Beowulf bias in Charles Alfred Stothard s Monumental Effigies of Great Britain and a medieval source for death in the Harry Potter novels The volume as a whole invites and informs a much larger discussion on such vital issues as the ethical choices medievalists make the implications of those choices for their makers and the impact of those choices on the world around us Karl Fugelso is Professor of Art History at Towson University in Baltimore Maryland Contributors Mary R Bowman Harry Brown Louise D Arcens Alison Gulley Nickolas Haydock Lisa Hicks Lesley E Jacobs Michael R Kightley Phillip Lindley Pascal J Massie Lauryn S Mayer Brent Moberley Kevin Moberley Daniel Raymond Nadon Jason Pitruzello Nancy M Resh Carol L Robinson Christopher Roman M J Toswell

The Generative Power of Hope Frederick Bird,2022-04-26 This book analyses how and why we are living at a critical moment in the history of human life on earth and explores how we find grounds for the hopes that will enable us to address the challenges and crises of our time The author analyses hope both practically and philosophically as a generative virtue to realistically discern the situations in which we find ourselves and imaginatively to anticipate possibilities when the future is unknown and uncertain The author argues that hope is a mean between anomy disillusionment and despair on the one hand and wishful thinking dreaming and fanaticizing on the other hand The book not only examines and analyzes from a historical perspective the contemporary crises such as climate change environmental degradation and its effects such as the social costs of these developments but also further analyzes the character and micro dynamics of hope and how it makes a difference in how we manage the crises which inevitably emerge Though contemporary crises are those we tend to focus on the author also engages with what is involved in a due regard for history and the relevance of a sense of history for addressing the crises of our time He shows us what we can learn from revisiting some thoughtful reflections by thinkers like Niebuhr Jaspers Camus and Arendt Finally the author shows us what is involved practically in anticipating possibilities by looking at hope as a social practice and noting how hopeful people make a difference

Waiting on God (Routledge Revivals) Simone Weil,2009-10-15 A work first published in English in 1951 Waiting on God forms the best possible introduction to the work of Simone Weil for it brings us into direct contact with this amazing personality at once so pure so ardent so utterly sincere yet normally so reserved that only her closest friends guessed the secrets of her inner life The first part of the book concerns her letters written to the Reverend Father Perrin O P who befriended her at Marseilles and the only priest she knew became her intimate friend The second part of the book concerns essays and reflections on such subjects as education human affliction and the love of God prayer and forms of the implicit love of God

Women, Politics, and Social Networks in the Sagas of Norwegian Kings Markus Eldegard Mindrebø, 2025-05-19 The Old Norse Icelandic konungas gur kings sagas have been thoroughly studied for centuries for their vivid representation of Scandinavia's Viking Age past but women have frequently been overlooked in scholarly discussions of the political culture found within the texts Women Politics and Social Networks in the Sagas of Norwegian Kings shows that in their accounts of early Norwegian history the kings sagas portray aristocratic and royal women as able to participate in politics at a similar level to men but only within certain social parameters Women are structurally enabled to enter male dominated political spaces and positions through their participation in interaction with and manipulation of multifaceted aristocratic networks based around interpersonal bonds of kinship friendship and lordship Inspired by advancements within medieval network theory and studies of aristocratic group behaviour and women's social agency in medieval historiography the book demonstrates that the sagas portray elite women as utilising the same network strategies as men and potentially exercising similar levels of political power as a consequence while being excluded from the institutionalised roles of kingship chieftaincy and military and judicial leadership
