Bonfire of Creeds Ashis Nandy, 2010      Empire, Nationalism and the Postcolonial World Michael

Collins, 2013-03-01 By presenting a new interpretation of Rabindranath Tagore's English language writings this book places the work of India's greatest Nobel Prize winner and cultural icon in the context of imperial history and thereby bridges the gap between Tagore studies and imperial postcolonial historiography Using detailed archival research the book charts the origins of Tagore's ideas in Indian religious traditions and discusses the impact of early Indian nationalism on Tagore's thinking It offers a new interpretation of Tagore's complex debates with Gandhi about the colonial encounter Tagore's provocative analysis of the impact of British imperialism in India and his questioning of nationalism as a pathway to authentic postcolonial freedom The book also demonstrates how the man and his ideas were received and interpreted in Britain during his lifetime and how they have been sometimes misrepresented by nationalist historians and postcolonial theorists after Tagore's death An alternative interpretation based on an intellectual history approach this book places Tagore's sense of agency his ideas and intentions within a broader historical framework Offering an exciting critique of postcolonial theory from a historical perspective it is a timely contribution in the wake of the 150th anniversary of Tagore's birth in 2011

Narratives of Gendered Dissent in South Asian Cinemas Alka Kurian, 2012 This book conducts a post colonial gendered investigation of women centred South Asian films In these films the narrative becomes an act of political engagement and a site of feminist struggle a map that weaves together multiple strands of subjectivity gender caste race class religion and colonialism The book explores the cinematic construction of an oppositional narrative of feminist dissent with a view to elaborate a historical understanding and theorisation of the materiality and politics of the everyday struggle of Indian women The book analyzes the ways that cultural workers have tended to use subversive narratives as a tool of resistance Narratives that are political ideological classed raced and gendered offer the focus of this exploration Through strategies of disclosure and documentation of memory personal experiences and imaginary events shaped by the larger historical political and cultural contexts these discursive texts engage in the processes of struggle against a plethora of oppression caste class religion patriarchal sexual and neo colonial The study looks at the manner in which through their creative and aesthetic interventions South Asian film makers enable the articulation of an alternative gendered subjectivity as well as constitute the ground for personal and collective empowerment Films discussed include Shyam Benegal's Nishaant Nandita Das Firaag Beate Arnestad's My Daughter the Terrorist and Sarah Gavron's Brick Lane      Land and Literature in a Cosmopolitan

Age Vincent P. Beattie, K. Schick, 2012-11-27 This book develops a concept of vulnerability in International Relations that allows for a profound rethinking of a core concept of international politics means ends rationality It explores traditions that proffer a more complex and relational account of vulnerability

Practical Spirituality and Human Development Ananta Kumar Giri, 2018-09-28 This book explores varieties of spiritual movements and alternative experiments for generation of beauty dignity and dialogues in a world where the rise of the religious in politics and the public sphere is often accompanied by violence It examines how spirituality can contribute to human development social transformations and planetary realizations urging us to treat each other and our planet with evolutionary care and respect Trans disciplinary and trans paradigmatic to its very core this text opens new pathways of practical spirituality and humanistic action for both scholarship and discourse and offers an invaluable companion for scholars across religious studies cultural studies and development studies

Confronting Secularism in Europe and India Brian Black, Gavin Hyman, Graham M. Smith, 2014-06-19 Can secularism continue to provide a foundation for political legitimacy It is often claimed that one of the cultural achievements of the West has been its establishment of secular democracy wherein religious belief is respected but confined to the sphere of private belief In more recent times however political secularism has been increasingly called into question Religious believers in numerous traditions have protested against the distortion and confinement that secularism imposes on their faith Others have become uneasily aware of the way in which secularism no longer commands universal assent in the way it once did Confronting Secularism in Europe and India adds to this debate by staging a creative encounter between European and Indian conceptions of secularism with a view to continuing new and distinctive trajectories of thought about the place and role of secularism in contemporary times Looking at political secularism the relationship between secularism and religion and religious and secular violence this book considers whether there are viable alternatives to secularism in Europe and in India

Literature and Postcolonial Studies Rajeev S. Patke,2013-05-20 Provides a fresh account of modernist writing in a perspective based on the reading strategies developed by postcolonial studies Neither modernity nor colonialism and likewise neither postmodernity nor postcoloniality can be properly understood without recognition of their intertwined development This book interprets modernity as an asymmetrically global phenomenon complexly connected to the course of Western imperialism and demonstrates how the impact of Western modernism produced new developments in writing from all the former colonies of Europe and the US These developments constitute the afterlife of Western modernism The various ways in which the aesthetic ideologies and writing strategies of Western modernism have been adapted transposed and modified by some of the most innovative writers of the twentieth century is demonstrated in the book through a set of case studies each of which juxtaposes a canonical modernist text with a postcolonial text that shows how modernist modes metamorphosed in interaction with the turbulent and volatile realities of colonies and new nations struggling to arrive at a modernity of their own in contexts marked by colonial histories Thus Kafka's allegories are juxtaposed with the use of allegory in writers like Salman Rushdie and J M Coetzee the gendered modernity of Virginia Woolf is juxtaposed with the disturbing and powerful fictions of writers such as Jean Rhys and Katherine Mansfield the intellectualized and urbanized spirituality of T S Eliot's The Waste Land is re-read in the revisionist contexts created by the brilliant and troubled urban spirituality of writers such as Arun Kolatkar from India and a text such as The Woman Who Had Two Navels from the Philippines The Asian Yearbook of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law ,2020-07-27 The Asian Yearbook of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law aims to publish peer reviewed scholarly articles and reviews as well as significant developments in human rights and humanitarian law It examines international human rights and humanitarian law with a global reach though its particular focus is on the Asian region The focused theme of Volume 4 is India and Human Rights
