housing shortage There was little construction during the war a lot of rent properties were ramshackle and inadequate but hard to find at that quarters consisted of half a Quonset furnished Homoja consisted of two very small bedrooms one bathroom shower only The living room extended into a tiny kitchen We had an ice box and an oil burning space heater happily I never had to get used to a wood stove The cottage had only one oil heater We lived in fear of it blowing up one day to our horror it happened one evening while we were at the movies troops were surrounded and cut off by the Communist Chinese mail stopped It was a terrible traumatic time for both of us Well I needn't tell you that the war situation is really grim Of course I too am very worried and scared stiff Don't worry about me I'll be okay My heart pounds for minutes each time the doorbell rings I did receive the dreaded telegram January 30 when Bob was wounded again When the telegram came our five year old daughter was crying with me she said Momma what is wounded She didn't know why we were crying Out of his battalion of 900 men only 300 came thru Wallace Jordan Reid was killed in action August 8 1950 American Popular
