

The poem is always the last resort. In it the poet makes a world in little, and finds peace, even though, under complete focused emotion, the evocation be far more bitter than reality, or far more lovely.

The Poet Makes:

The Past that Poets Make Harold E. Toliver, 1981 This analysis of the literary art of recapturing the past as the artist perceives it examines such questions as how a fictional narrative differs from other ways of seeing a past time to what extent literature is nontemporal and to what extent it is tied to the institutions and traditions of its era and how given works conjure up a sense of time

I, the Poet Kathleen McCarthy, 2019-10-15 First person poetry is a familiar genre in Latin literature Propertius Catullus and Horace deployed the first person speaker in a variety of ways that either bolster or undermine the link between this figure and the poet himself In I the Poet Kathleen McCarthy offers a new approach to understanding the ubiquitous use of a first person voice in Augustan age poetry taking on several of the central debates in the field of Latin literary studies including the inheritance of the Greek tradition the shift from oral performance to written collections and the status of the poetic I voice In light of her own experience as a twenty first century reader for whom Latin poetry is meaningful across a great gulf of linguistic cultural and historical distances McCarthy positions these poets as the self conscious readers of and heirs to a long tradition of Greek poetry which prompted them to explore radical forms of communication through the poetic form Informed in part by the New Lyric Studies I the Poet will appeal not only to scholars of Latin literature but to readers across a range of literary studies who seek to understand the Roman contexts which shaped canonical poetic genres

Lyric Poetry Mutlu Blasing, 2009-01-10 Lyric poetry has long been regarded as the intensely private emotional expression of individuals powerful precisely because it draws readers into personal worlds But who exactly is the I in a lyric poem and how is it created In Lyric Poetry Mutlu Blasing argues that the individual in a lyric is only a virtual entity and that lyric poetry takes its power from the public emotional power of language itself In the first major new theory of the lyric to be put forward in decades Blasing proposes that lyric poetry is a public discourse deeply rooted in the mother tongue She looks to poetic linguistic and psychoanalytic theory to help unravel the intricate historical processes that generate speaking subjects and concludes that lyric forms convey both personal and communal emotional histories in language Focusing on the work of such diverse twentieth century American poets as T S Eliot Ezra Pound Wallace Stevens and Anne Sexton Blasing demonstrates the ways that the lyric I speaks from first to last as a creation of poetic language

The Poems of Matthew Prior. (The Life of Matthew Prior Matthew Prior, 1822 A Companion to Ancient Aesthetics Pierre Destrée, Penelope Murray, 2015-07-20 The first of its kind A Companion to Ancient Aesthetics presents a synoptic view of the arts which crosses traditional boundaries and explores the aesthetic experience of the ancients across a range of media oral aural visual and literary Investigates the many ways in which the arts were experienced and conceptualized in the ancient world Explores the aesthetic experience of the ancients across a range of media treating literary oral aural and visual arts together in a single volume Presents an integrated perspective on the major themes of ancient aesthetics which challenges traditional demarcations Raises questions about the similarities and differences between ancient and modern ways of thinking about the place of art in society

Transcultural Poetics and the Concept of the Poet Ranjan Ghosh, 2016-12-08 Critiquing the politics and dynamics of the transcultural poetics of reading literature this book demonstrates an ambitious understanding of the concept of the poet across a wide range of traditions Anglo American German French Arabic Chinese Sanskrit Bengali Urdu and philosophies of creativity that are rarely studied side by side Ghosh carves out unexplored spaces of negotiation and intersections between literature aesthetics and philosophy The book demonstrates an original method of global comparison that displaces the relatively staid and historicist categories that have underpinned comparative literature approaches so far since they rarely dare stray beyond issues of influence and schools or new world literature approaches that affirm cosmopolitanism and transnationalism as overarching themes Going beyond comparatism and reformulating the chronological patterns of reading this bold book introduces new methodologies of reading literature to configure the concept of the poet from Philip Sidney to T S Eliot reading the notion of the poet through completely new theoretical and epistemic triggers Commonly known texts and sometimes well circulated ideas are subjected to refreshing reading in what the author calls the transcultural now and in fusionised transpoetical matrices By moving between theories of poetry and literature that come from widely separated times contexts and cultures this book shows the relevance of canonical texts to a theory of the future as marked by post global concerns

Making History with Manuscripts in Medieval and Early Modern Europe Johannes Junge Ruhland, 2025-06-02 This volume interrogates the role of the manuscript medium in conveying history to medieval and early modern readers The contributors adopt a capacious understanding of history to explore history writing in its materiality from a variety of methodological and disciplinary perspectives The core contentions of this book are that the material features of manuscripts helped shaping historical narratives and defining history conceptually and that therefore the makers of these manuscripts played an instrumental role in history writing alongside authors Ranging from the ninth to the sixteenth centuries and comprising materials from across Western Europe in Latin and the vernaculars the ten chapters of this volume uncover stakes and strategies tied to highly specific contexts such as late thirteenth century Corbie or fifteenth century Zurich yet partaking in a shared practice of history writing with manuscripts Manuscript makers made history through layout rewriting illumination compilation choice of script and annotation and conferred history writing its material dimension This volume therefore situates the writing of history in its material dimension and invites us to consider medieval and early modern historiography in its medium

The Poet-Hero in the Work of Byron and Shelley Madeleine Callaghan, 2019-02-28 Byron's and Shelley's experimentation with the possibilities and pitfalls of poetic heroism unites their work The Poet Hero in the Work of Byron and Shelley traces the evolution of the poet hero in the work of both poets revealing that the struggle to find words adequate to the poet's imaginative vision and historical circumstance is their central poetic achievement Madeleine Callaghan explores the different types of poetic heroism that evolve in Byron's and Shelley's poetry and drama Both poets experiment with challenge and embrace a variety of poetic forms and genres and this book discusses such generic exploration in the light of their developing versions of the poet hero The heroism of the poet as an idea an ideal and an illusion undergoes many different incarnations and definitions as both poets shape distinctive and changing conceptions of the hero throughout their careers

Biblical Echo and Allusion in the Poetry of W.B. Yeats Dwight Hilliard Purdy, 1994 This book treats the poetics of biblical allusion in the lyric poetry of William Butler Yeats and the ways in which the King James Bible became for Yeats a model for poetry as a communal voice shaping a culture The introduction analyzes the critical history of what Eleanor Cook has termed the poetics of allusion emphasizing the work of the Italian rhetorician Gian Biagio Conte and the American critic and poet John Hollander The major topics considered here are allusions as the intersections of texts as figures of speech and as structural signifiers the centrality of the reader in the study of allusion the quality of allusions their placement and varying degrees of clarity and the centrality of the study of allusion to cultural criticism The first chapter is concerned with the development of the Bible as a model for secular poetry from the late eighteenth century to Yeats surveying Bishop Lowth Blake Coleridge Wordsworth Shelley and Matthew Arnold as well as Yeats's references in his prose works to the Bible as a model for art and the artist and his desire to restore the Bible as sacred text yet write his own Bible Chapters 2 through 5 take up in detail the poetics of biblical allusion and echo in the poems Chapter 2 treats the poetry of the nineties here Yeats usually engages the Bible as an antagonist subverting it for the sake of a Celtic consciousness denying its exclusive claim to spiritual truth But many biblical echoes show Yeats's dependence upon the Bible as a guide to poetic language Chapter 3 concerns the poetry from In the Seven Worlds to The Wild Swans at Coole Yeats looks on Scripture with an ironic eye often replacing it with what he calls haughtier texts the parables prayers visions and private revelations that mirror biblical models and make biblical texts into warrants for his own theory of rebirth Chapter 4 is a close reading of biblical intertextuality in seven poems The Second Coming Sailing to Byzantium Meditations in Time of Civil War Nineteen Hundred and Nineteen Prayer for My Son Dialogue of Self and Soul and Vacillation In these major poems Yeats displays his antitheticality as Hazard Adams calls it putting into dramatic tension biblical texts and his own heterodox ideas about birth death and resurrection Chapter 5 examines the poetry after Vacillation where Yeats gives biblical texts often text used before a new sensual gloss but also admits the limits of a high talk derived from scriptural language Chapter 6 places Yeats in the broad context of biblical intertextuality working backward from modernism to Romanticism First the study contrasts Yeats with two of his contemporaries D H Lawrence and T S Eliot for whom the Bible always asserts its religious authority in the Victorian tradition of Arnold Clough Browning and Tennyson The study concludes by comparing Yeats to Wordsworth and Shelley Although Yeats is deeply indebted to them his attitude is distinct from theirs even when rejecting the Bible Wordsworth and Shelley accept a dogmatic view of it while Yeats escapes dogmatism

Owen, 2021-10-18 This study of contemporary German poetry represents the first attempt to examine comprehensively and at some length the lyric response to the unification period It sets out to investigate by means of close textual analysis whether the German Wende was also a turning point for poetry exploring how GDR poets responded both to the revolutionary events of 1989 and subsequently to the new united Germany An introductory chapter considers what is distinct about poetry as a genre especially under censorship or amid historic change as well as outlining the post unification Literaturstreit The following chapter offers a survey of the poet's role in the GDR from 1949 until 1989 Two central chapters then gather the poetry of the Wende and unification as a corpus of work and characterize it through the elucidation of recurring themes motifs and techniques The volume strikes a balance between giving a general overview of poetry written in 1989 1996 and focusing on individual poets whose work is particularly compelling After identifying broad trends across a wide range of individual poems collections and anthologies single chapters therefore examine in greater depth the work of Volker Braun and Durs Grünbein The concluding chapter addresses the issue of a separate GDR literature Finally an extensive structured bibliography is provided covering the poetry literary criticism and cultural history of the period The Cure of Poetry in an Age of Prose Mary Kinzie, 1993-07-15 The role of the poet Mary Kinzie writes is to engage the most profound subjects with the utmost in expressive clarity The role of the critic is to follow the poet word for word into the arena where the creative struggle occurs How this mutual purpose is served ideally and practically is the subject of this bracingly polemical collection of essays A distinguished poet and critic Kinzie assesses poetry's situation during the past twenty five years Ours she contends is literally a prosaic age not only in the popularity of prose genres but in the resultant compromises with truth and elegance in literature In essays on the rhapsodic fallacy confessionalism and the romance of perceptual response Kinzie diagnoses some of the trends that diminish the poet's flexibility Conversely she also considers individual poets Randall Jarrell Elizabeth Bishop Howard Nemerov Seamus Heaney and John Ashbery who have found ingenious ways of averting the risks of prosaism and preserving the special character of poetry Focusing on poet Louise Bogan and novelist J M Coetzee Kinzie identifies a crucial and curative overlap between the practices of great prose writing and great poetry In conclusion she suggests a new approach for teaching writers of poetry and fiction Forcefully argued these essays will be widely read and debated among critics and poets alike The Works of the Poets of Great Britain and Ireland Samuel Johnson,1800 Poetic
