The Roxburghe Club founded in 1812 has an unbroken publishing history from 1814 to the present day The Early Roxburghe Club 1812 1835 offers a new narrative for the formative years of the Roxburghe Club for the bibliomania of the Romantic period and for early nineteenth century antiquarian culture and its relationship to the emergent popularity and status of English vernacular literature By examining in detail the make up and membership of the club including its social and political affinities this revised history of the first two decades of its existence offers both an alternative view of the early club and its significant contribution to the move between antiquarian and scholarly areas of influence in the study of English literature

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries      The Early Roxburghe Club 1812-1835 Shayne Husbands, 2017-08-21
