Collecting Four Broadcast Talks:

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07
More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature. The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis, articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition. The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries.

Beginning with the first broadcast by experimental station 9XM at the University of Wisconsin followed by WHA through the state owned affiliate WLBL to the network of stations that in the years following WWII formed the Wisconsin Public Radio network. Davidson describes how with homemade equipment and ideas developed from scratch public radio became a tangible example of the Wisconsin Idea bringing the educational riches of the university to all the state's residents. Marking the centennial year of Wisconsin Public Radio this paperback edition includes a new foreword by Bill Siemering National Public Radio's founding director of programming.
