The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1968 Italian Medieval Sculpture in the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Cloisters Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Lisbeth Castelnovo-Tedesco, Jack Soltanian, 2010. The collection of Italian medieval sculpture in The Metropolitan Museum of Art and The Cloisters began with the acquisition in 1908 of a Romanesque column statue. Today the Museum's holdings comprise more than seventy works dating from the ninth to the late fifteenth century. The birthplaces of these works range from Sicily to Venice; some typify local styles, others illustrate the intense artistic exchanges taking place within Italy and between Italy and the wider world. Technological advances of the last decades have made it possible to determine more precisely the materials and techniques from which works of art are made; the history of their alteration and the mechanisms of their deterioration. Using such techniques, scholars have been able to ascertain, for example, that sculptures previously thought to be modern works carved in the medieval manner were in fact completely authentic. This innovative volume represents a watershed in the study of sculpture: a collaborative dialogue between an art historian and a conservator between art history and art science that deepens our understanding of the object we see while illuminating its elusive, enigmatic history. From publisher's description.

Bible Missals and the Medieval Dominican Liturgy Innocent Smith, 2023-11-06. Bible Missals are manuscripts that integrate liturgical prayers for the Mass with the scriptural texts of the Latin Vulgate. Long overlooked by scholars, Bible Missals offer important evidence for the development of the medieval liturgy and the liturgical use of scripture by medieval Christians. This monograph is the first comprehensive analysis of the codicology and contents of Bible Missals. Mostly produced in the first half of the 13th century by professional book makers in centers like Paris and

Oxford these hybrid manuscripts were customized for secular monastic and mendicant patrons This monograph focuses on Dominican Bible Missals the largest group within the repertoire providing detailed codicological descriptions of each manuscript and analyzing their texts for the Order of Mass and selected liturgical formularies including prayers for the feast of St Dominic For medieval Christians the words and events of scripture were continually called to mind and reenacted in the sacramental rites of the Mass Bible Missals provide important material evidence for this interplay between word and sacrament
