Meyers, 2000-01-01 This book documents the Episcopal Church's developing focus on baptism within the context of the liturgical movement the emerging understanding of the eucharist prayer book revision and the confirmation dilemma Drawing on historical and contemporary sources the author presents a credible case in support of her belief that a baptismal ecclesiology is emerging from these events that have enabled people to accept a radically different initiatory pattern in the church This book exhibits clarity on the issues discussed with the support of solid scholarship and lucid writing

Strout, 2024-01-01 Every Sunday around the world Christians offer money and in kind gifts to the church traditionally known as alms This act produces questions about what it means to offer God a gift when God has offered humanity the greatest gift in Jesus Christ or the balance of favour or gratitude in the giving of these gifts These very questions and more have had a significant influence on the liturgy particularly in the offertory within Anglicanism In Of Thine Own Have We Given Thee Shawn O Strout provides a comprehensive analysis of the offertory rites including in his analysis other churches within the
