The Book of European Wines John Booth, 1985 The Book of European Wines John Booth, 1985 European wine
Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee, 2007-10-30 The Committee's earlier report HLP 144 I session 2006 07 ISBN 9780104011249 set out its emerging conclusions on the European Commission's proposals for reform of the EU wine sector Having considered the Government's views on the adequacy of the Commission's proposals the evidence given by Lord Rooker is included in this report the report reaffirms the Committee's earlier opinion that the Commission's proposals broadly constitute an important step towards setting the EU wine industry onto a sounder basis although serious reservations remain about two specific proposals to extend the current ban on new plantings from 2010 until 2013 and to prohibit the use of sucrose in wine making The report also considers some underlying weaknesses of the present system including attitudes to wine production which appear to be too oriented towards the needs of producers and not enough towards those of consumers changes in public attitudes to wine which the EU wine industry has been slow to recognise with the different structure and modus operandi of the New World wine industries which have enabled them to achieve an increasing share of the EU wine market and with the need for more vertical integration of the industry from wine growing through production to marketing A History of Wine in Europe, 19th to 20th Centuries, Volume II Silvia A. Indiana Wine James L. Butler,John J. Butler,2001-10-03 During election years in the early 1800s touring politicians would often stop at Vevay in an effort to gather votes On one such occasion the governor Jonathan Jennings was visiting Vevay with his entourage They all stopped at Father Morerod s home to taste some of his wine The governor and one or two others from abroad being unaccustomed to wine became considerably befuddled as did some of the Vevay boys The way back to town was blocked by a large growth of dog fennel a yellow flowering weed The politicians passed through this field wearing white trousers and shirts In their confused condition they soon emerged and presented to the townsfolk an amusing spectacle of the governor and fellow dignitaries wearing yellow pants and yellow spotted vests From Indiana Wine A History John James Dufour arrived in America in 1796 looking for land for a colony of vinedressers They first settled in Kentucky but then purchased land in the Indiana Territory on the north bank of the Ohio River Here in the town they called Vevay the Swiss winegrowers successfully produced America s first commercial wines In Indiana Wine a richly anecdotal history of wine production in Indiana James L and John J Butler relate a vintage story of early triumph followed by precipitous decline and ending in present day success Though the economic decline of the 1820s ended the first flowering of Indiana vineyards John James Dufour continued his work and in 1826 he published the first book written about American grape growing and winemaking Thereafter the heart of America s wine production was centered near Cincinnati Ohio That industry collapsed in the 1870s but small wineries could still be found scattered across southern Indiana With the coming of Prohibition the idea of Indiana wine was lost It was not until the passing of the Small Winery law in 1971 that winemaking began anew in the state Today some 25 wineries large and small produce a wide variety of Indiana wine Table Wines M.
