Edinburgh Companion to the Arab Novel in English Nouri Gana, 2015-04-17 Opening up the field of diasporic Anglo Arab literature to critical debate this companion spans from the first Arab novel in 1911 to the resurgence of the Anglo Arabic novel in the last 20 years There are chapters on authors such as Ameen Rihani Ahdaf The Book of Khalid Ameen Rihani, 2016-03-21 The semi autobiographical work chronicles the adventures of two young men Khalid and Shakib who leave Lebanon for the United States to find work as peddlers in Lower Manhattan After mixed success at immersing themselves in American culture the two return to the Middle East at a time of turmoil following the Young Turk Revolution in the Ottoman Empire Khalid attempts to integrate his Western experiences with Eastern spiritual values becoming an absurd yet all too serious combination of political revolutionary and prophet The Book of Khalid offers readers a heady mix of picaresque philosophical dialogue and immigrant story In this critical edition Fine includes the text of the original 1911 edition a substantial glossary and supplemental essays by leading Rihani scholars Demonstrating the reach and significance of the work these essays address a variety of themes including Rihani's creative influences philosophical elements and the historical context of the novel Attracting a new generation of readers to Rihani's innovative work this edition reveals his continued resonance with contemporary Arab American literature

American Arabesque Jacob Rama Berman, 2012-06-11 Part of the American Literatures Initiative Series American Arabesque examines representations of Arabs Islam and the Near East in nineteenth century American culture arguing that these representations play a significant role in the development of American national identity over the century revealing largely unexplored exchanges between these two cultural traditions that will alter how we understand them today Moving from the period of America's engagement in the Barbary Wars through the Holy Land travel mania in the years of Jacksonian expansion and into the writings of romantics such as Edgar Allan Poe the book argues that not only were Arabs and Muslims prominently featured in nineteenth century literature but that the differences writers established between figures such as Moors Bedouins Turks and Orientals provide proof of the transnational scope of domestic racial politics Drawing on both English and Arabic language sources Berman contends that the fluidity and instability of the term Arab as it appears in captivity narratives travel narratives imaginative literature and ethnic literature simultaneously instantiate and undermine definitions of the American nation and American citizenship

Race Characters Swati Rana, 2020-10-06 A vexed figure inhabits U S literature and culture the visibly racialized immigrant who disavows minority identity and embraces the American dream Such figures are potent and controversial for they promise to expiate racial violence and perpetuate an exceptionalist ideal of America Swati Rana grapples with these figures building on studies of literary character and racial form Rana offers a new way to view characterization through racialization that creates a fuller social reading of race Situated in a nascent period of ethnic identification from 1900 to 1960 this book focuses on immigrant writers who do not fit neatly into a resistance based model of ethnic literature Writings by Paule Marshall Ameen Rihani Dalip Singh Saund Jos Garcia Villa and Jos Antonio Villarreal symbolize different aspects of the American dream from individualism to imperialism assimilation to upward mobility The dynamics of characterization are also those of contestation Rana argues Analyzing the interrelation of persona and personhood Race Characters presents an original method of comparison revealing how the protagonist of the American dream is socially constrained and structurally driven
