American Studies A Guide To Information Source:

A Guide to Information Sources in the Geographical Sciences Stephen Goddard,1983-01-01 Geography is a wide ranging discipline and the number of information sources available is truly enormous These include printed books and journal articles maps satellite photographs archives statistical information and much else One particular problem facing geographers is that when one studies a foreign country information may be available only in the foreign country and difficult to obtain This book discusses the information sources available to geographers United States History James Warren Oberly,1995 A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse,1990-01-01 This ambitious undertaking is designed to acquaint students teachers and researchers with reference sources in any branch of English studies which Marcuse defines as all those subjects and lines of critical and scholarly inquiry presently pursued by members of university departments of English language and literature Within each of 24 major sections Marcuse lists and annotates bibliographies guides reviews of research encyclopedias dictionaries journals and reference histories The annotations and various indexes are models of clarity and usefulness and cross references are liberally supplied where appropriate Although cost conscious librarians will probably consider the several other excellent literary bibliographies in print such as James L Harner s Literary Research Guide Modern Language Assn of America 1989 larger academic libraries will want Marcuse s volume Jack Bales Mary Washington Coll Lib Fredericksburg Va Library Journal American Studies Jack Salzman,American Studies Association,1986-08-29 A major three volume bibliography including an additional supplement of an annotated listing of American Studies monographs published between 1900 and 1988 General Technical Report INT. ,1987 Reference Sources for Canadian Literary Studies Joseph Jones,2005-01-01 Reference Sources for Canadian Literary Studies offers the first full scale bibliography of writing on and in the field of Canadian literary studies Approximately one thousand annotated entries are arranged by reference genre with sub groupings related to literary genre Technology as Freedom Ronald C. Tobey,2023-11-15 Before 1930 the domestic market for electrical appliances was segmented but New Deal policies and programs created a true mass market reshaping the electrical and housing markets and guiding them toward mandated social goals The New Deal identified electrical refrigeration as a key technology to reform domestic labor raise family health and build family assets New Deal incentives led to nearly fifty percent of Title I National Housing Act loans being used to buy electric refrigerators in the 1930s New Deal policies ultimately created the mass commodity culture of home owning families that typified the conservative 1950s This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1996 Methods for Evaluating Riparian Habitats with Applications to Management William S.
