Blood on the Forge William Attaway, 1969 Rethinking Social Realism Stacy I. Morgan, 2004 The social realist movement with its focus on proletarian themes and its strong ties to New Deal programs and leftist politics has long been considered a depression era phenomenon that ended with the start of World War II This study explores how and why African American writers and visual artists sustained an engagement with the themes and aesthetics of social realism into the early cold war era far longer than a majority of their white counterparts Stacy I Morgan recalls the social realist atmosphere in which certain African American artists and writers were immersed and shows how black social realism served alternately to question the existing order instill race pride and build interracial working class coalitions Morgan discusses among others such figures as Charles White John Wilson Frank Marshall Davis Willard Motley Langston Hughes Sterling Brown Elizabeth Catlett and Hale Woodruff Writers of the Black Chicago Renaissance Steven C. Tracy, 2011-11-01 Writers of the Black Chicago Renaissance comprehensively explores the contours and content of the Black Chicago Renaissance a creative movement that emerged from the crucible of rigid segregation in Chicago's Black Belt from the 1930s through the 1960s Heavily influenced by the Harlem Renaissance and the Chicago Renaissance of white writers its participants were invested in political activism and social change as much as literature art and aesthetics The revolutionary writing of this era produced some of the first great accolades for African American literature and set up much of the important writing that came to fruition in the Black Arts Movement The volume covers a vast collection of subjects including many important writers such as Richard Wright Gwendolyn Brooks and Lorraine Hansberry as well as cultural products such as black newspapers music and theater The book includes individual entries by experts on each subject a discography and filmography that highlight important writers musicians films and cultural presentations and an introduction that relates the Harlem Renaissance the White Chicago Renaissance the Black Chicago Renaissance and the Black Arts Movement Contributors are Robert Butler Robert H Cataliotti Maryemma Graham James C
