Bloomsbury Guide to Women's Literature Claire Buck, 1994 The Canon in Southeast Asian Literatures David Smyth, 2000 The literary canon is one of the most lively areas of debate in contemporary literary studies This set of essays is both timely and original in its focus on the canon in South East Asian literatures covering Burma Cambodia Indonesia Laos Malaysia Philippines Thailand and Vietnam They vary in focus from the broad panoramic survey of trends in a national literature to very specific discussions of the role of individuals in shaping a canon or the place of a particular text within a tradition and from contemporary to traditional literature They include discussions of the development of prose fiction censorship and artistic freedom the role of westerners in codifying indigenous literatures the writing of literary history the development of literary criticism and indigenous aesthetics Women's Writing in Nineteenth-Century France Alison Finch, 2000-08-10 This is the most complete critical survey to date of women s literature in nineteenth century France Alison Finch s wide ranging analysis of some 60 writers reflects the rich diversity of a century that begins with Mme de Sta l s cosmopolitanism and ends with Rachilde s perverse eroticism Finch s study brings out the contribution not only of major figures like George Sand but also of many other talented and important writers who have been unjustly rejected including Flora Tristan Claire de Duras and Delphine de Girardin Her account opens new perspectives on the interchange between male and female authors and on women s literary traditions during the period She discusses popular and serious writing fiction verse drama memoirs journalism feminist polemic historiography travelogues children s tales religious and political thought often brave innovative texts linked to women s social and legal status in an oppressive society Extensive reference features include bibliographical guides to texts and writers Reference Guide to Russian Literature Neil

Cornwell, 2013-12-02 First Published in 1998 This volume will surely be regarded as the standard guide to Russian literature for some considerable time to come It is therefore confidently recommended for addition to reference libraries be they academic or public Women and Gender in Central and Eastern Europe, Russia, and Eurasia Mary Zirin, Irina

Livezeanu, Christine D. Worobec, June Pachuta Farris, 2015-03-26 This is the first comprehensive multidisciplinary and multilingual bibliography on Women and Gender in East Central Europe and the Balkans Vol 1 and The Lands of the Former Soviet Union Vol 2 over the past millennium The coverage encompasses the relevant territories of the Russian Hapsburg and Ottoman empires Germany and Greece and the Jewish and Roma diasporas Topics range from legal status and marital customs to economic participation and gender roles plus unparalleled documentation of women writers and artists and autobiographical works of all kinds The volumes include approximately 30 000 bibliographic entries on works published through the end of 2000 as well as web sites and unpublished dissertations Many of the individual entries are annotated with brief descriptions of major works and the tables of contents for collections and anthologies The entries are cross referenced and each volume includes indexes

American Women during World War II Doris Weatherford, 2009-10-16 American Women during World War II documents the lives and stories of women who contributed directly to the war effort via official and semi official military organizations as well as the millions of women who worked in civilian defense industries ranging from aircraft maintenance to munitions manufacturing and much more It also illuminates how the war changed the lives of women in more traditional home front roles All women had to cope with rationing of basic household goods and most women volunteered in war related programs Other entries discuss institutional change as the war affected every aspect of life including as schools hospitals and even religion American Women during World War II provides a handy one volume collection of information and images suitable for any public or professional library

Nine Black Women Moira Ferguson, 2015-12-22 This is the first anthology to bring together the writings of the earliest black women writers in the East and West Caribbean Bermuda Canada the US and England The selections span the American Revolution to the decade following the Civil War The nine writers included both slave and free represent a variety of genres regions professions and political perspectives Their words suggest the rich cultural history embedded in the writings and provide a glimpse into the lives of women coping with extreme racism and sexism As black women survival guides the construction of their texts and their public images Each employs diverse strategies of resistance evasion displacement omission and accommodation With an introduction that contains copious biographical details about each writer and a brief chronology preceding each text Nine Black Women is a unique collection of original works

Women's Experience of Modernity, 1875-1945 Ann L. Ardis, Leslie W. Lewis, 2003-05-22 A collection of essays on women's history and literary production at the turn of the twentieth century that centers the feminine phenomena Analyzing such cultural practices as selling and shopping political and social activism urban field work and rural labor radical discourses on feminine sexuality and literary and artistic experimentation this volume contributes to the rich vein of current feminist scholarship on the gender of modernism and challenges the assumption that modernism rose naturally or inevitably to the forefront of the cultural landscape at the turn of the twentieth century During this period women's experience was a rallying cry for feminists a unifying cause that allowed women to work together to effect social change and make claims for women's rights However it also proved to be a source of great divisiveness among women for claims about its universality quickly unraveled to reveal the classism racism and Eurocentrism of various feminist activities and organizations The essays in this volume examine both literary and non literary writings of Jane Addams Djuna Barnes Toru Dutt Radclyffe Hall H D Pauline Hopkins Emma Dunham Kelley Amy Levy Alice Meynell Bram Stoker Ida B Wells Rebecca West and others Instead of focusing exclusively or even centrally on modernism and literature these essays address a broad array of textual materials from political pamphlets to gynecology textbooks as they investigate women's responses to the rise of commodity capitalism middle class women's entrance into the labor force the welfare state's invasion of the working class home and the intensified eroticization of racial and class differences

Political Gender Sally Ledger, Josephine McDonagh, Jane Spencer, 2014-07-10 In recent years feminist scholars through their insistence on the key role of gender in critical analysis have brought about a profound revitalization of literary and cultural studies This text draws together work by leading exponents in the field The essays explore the operations of gender in the production of knowledge and the formation of cultural representations in a wide variety of contexts from German romantic poetry to the literature of AIDS from Victorian ethnography to tabloid constructions of race All of the essays engage in problems of representation intervening in current debates in critical theory

Reading by Numbers Katherine Bode, 2012 Reading by Numbers Recalibrating the Literary Field is the first book to use digital humanities strategies to integrate the scope and methods of book and publishing history with issues and debates in literary studies By mining visualising and modelling data from AustLit an online bibliography of Australian literature that leads the world in its comprehensiveness and scope this study revises established conceptions of Australian literary history presenting new ways of writing about literature and publishing and a new direction for digital humanities research The case studies in this book offer insight into a wide range of features of the literary field including trends and cycles in the gender of novelists the formation of fictional genres and literary canons and the relationship of Australian literature to other national literatures

Encyclopedia of Latin American Literature Verity Smith, 1997-03-26 A comprehensive encyclopedic guide to the authors works and topics crucial to the literature of Central and South America and the Caribbean the Encyclopedia of Latin American Literature includes over 400 entries written by experts in the field of Latin American studies Most entries are of 1500 words but the encyclopedia also includes survey articles of up to 10 000 words on the literature of individual countries of the colonial period and of ethnic minorities including the Hispanic communities in the United States Besides presenting and illuminating the traditional canon the encyclopedia also stresses the contribution made by women authors and by contemporary writers Outstanding Reference Source Outstanding Reference Book

Revealing Difference Jenene J. Allison, 1995 In fact her originality extends far beyond this scale Charriere's novels not only work with literary conventions they work on these conventions For example the figure of the heroine plotted according to a standard plot line serves at a more complex level to undermine the image of woman embedded in the heroine Most telling are heroines plotted in the context of the French Revolution they reflect the repressive image of woman that would emerge from the combination of republican ideology with the growing emphasis on maternalism Surprisingly modern in this regard these novels confirm recent interpretations of the gendering of the social sphere after the Revolution

Post-war Spanish Women Novelists and the Recuperation of Historical Memory Patricia O'Byrne, 2014 Reconstructs through testimonial literature the repression of women during the Franco years and recovers the writings of some of the forgotten post war women novelists The passing of Spain's Law of Historical Memory 2007 marked the official recognition of the need to confront a violent and painful past Article 2 makes reference to specific groups who experienced discrimination including religious and ethnic communities no reference is made to the gender repression endured by women enforced by a patriarchal regime through its legislation and policies with the active support of the Church and the Women's Section of the Falange Revised narratives of the period that have emerged in recent decades have raised issues in relation to the reliability and selectivity of memory and its ongoing mediation by intervening events While documentary sources of the period are prejudicial contemporaneous post war testimonial novels provide an invaluable resource in reconstructing the past particularly the novels of women writers This book draws on their narrative to reconstruct the female experience of the post war years and in particular on the writings of novelists whose work has undeservedly been disregarded Neither the experience of women under Franco nor the narrative of women writers of the period should be forgotten Patricia O Byrne lectures in Hispanic Studies and Comparative Literature at Dublin City University

The Female Trickster Ricki Stefanie Tannen, 2014-02-25 The Female Trickster presents a Post Jungian postmodern perspective regarding the role of women in contemporary Western society by investigating the re emergence of female trickster energy in all aspects of popular culture Ricki Tannen explores the psychological aspects of what happened when women's imagination was legally and psychologically enclosed millennia ago and demonstrates how the re emergence of Trickster energy through the female imagination has the radical potential to effect a transformation of western consciousness Examples are drawn from a diverse range of sources from Jane Austen and female sleuth narratives to Madonna and Sex and the City illustrating how Trickster energy is used not to maintain power and control but to integrate and unite the paradoxical through humour Subjects covered include imagination and metaphor the traditional trickster law and the imagination humour Eros using logos the postmodern female trickster This highly original perspective on women's role in contemporary culture will offer readers a new vision of how humour psychologically operates as a healthy adaptation to trauma and adversity It will be of great interest to all analytical psychologists and psychoanalysts as well as those in women's cultural legal and literary studies

The Routledge Reader in Gender and Performance Lizbeth Goodman, Jane de Gay, 2002-01-31 The first reader in this field Contributions from many of the top academics in the field Extremely broad in its coverage Organized with the beginning student in mind

Dialogues Susan Hardy Aiken, 1994 Written over the course of the last four years a lot of ex es obviously had to be added to this comparative study of contemporary Soviet and American women writers In each of the volume's major sections two stories one by a contemporary then Soviet woman and one by a contemporary American woman become the focus of two interpretive essays one

Mary Wollstonecraft and Mary Shelley Helen M. Buss, D. L. Macdonald, Anne McWhir, 2006-01-01 Pioneers in life writing Mary Wollstonecraft author of A Vindication of the Rights of Woman 1792 and Mary Shelley author of Frankenstein 1818 are now widely regarded as two of the leading writers of the Romantic period. They are both responsible for opening up new possibilities for women in genres traditionally dominated by men. This volume brings together essays on Wollstonecraft's and Shelley's life writing by some of the most prominent scholars in Canada, Australia and the United States. It also includes a full length play by award winning Canadian playwright Rose Scollard. Together the essays and the play explore the connections between mother and daughter, between writing and life and between criticism and creation. They offer a new understanding of two important writers of a literary period and of emergent modes of life writing. Essayists include Judith Barbour, Betty T. Bennett, Anne K. Mellor, Charles E. Robinson, Eleanor Ty and Lisa Vargo. Among the works discussed are Wollstonecraft's Vindication, Letters from Norway and Maria; or, The Wrongs of Woman, William Godwin's Memoirs of Wollstonecraft and Shelley's Frankenstein, The Last Man, Lodore and Rambles in Germany and Italy.
