Bloomsbury At Home:

Bloomsbury at Home Pamela Todd, 2001 Fascination with the Bloomsbury set Virginia Woolf Leonard Woolf Vanessa Bell Duncan Grant Lytton Strachey Dora Carrington among others never ceases Bloomsbury at Home is the story of the friendship between a group of witty lively like minded highly talented individuals who came together during the first half of the twentieth century The book is divided by biography and geography into chapters centering on specific people and places for example Garsington the home of Lady Ottoline Morrell and Hogarth House in Richmond home to Virginia and Leonard Woolf and of course no book on the Bloomsbury set would be complete without mention of Vanessa Bell s home at Charleston Illustrated with a wide range of colour and black and white photographs memorabilia everything from menus to postcards portraits and paintings by members of the group Pamela Todd assembles a detailed account of how and where the Bloomsbury group grew up interacted and lived together during the first half of the twentieth century producing some of their finest work as well as evoking the richness of that extraordinary period in English art and literature Charleston Quentin Bell, Virginia Nicholson, 1997 Written by Bloomsbury painter Vanessa s Bell s son Quentin who grew up at Charleston in collaboration with his elder daughter this volume provides a detailed account of Charleston s transformation from dilapidated abandonment to an exquisitely decorated home in the high bohemian style The account of the house s transformation is blended with the story of the vibrant social life that the house sustained during the Bloomsbury years with the likes of Vanessa s sister Virginia Woolf and economist Maynard Keynes frequent sometimes lengthy visits Superb color photographs illustrate the domestic artistry which made the house so magical Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Home Is Somewhere Else Desider Furst, Lilian R. Furst, 2012-02-01 Following the Nazi annexation of Austria in March of 1938 Desider Furst his wife and his daughter suddenly found themselves hunted outlaws holders of a German passport branded with a red J for Jewish They escaped from Vienna and eventually settled in England where they spent the war years as enemy aliens In 1971 they emigrated once more this time voluntarily to the United States Home is Somewhere Else is a dual voice autobiographical narration by father and daughter recounting the family s displacements obstacles and repeated reversals The experiences documented here are typical of many Central Europeans whose lives were radically and painfully affected by the Nazis This book s originality lies in its narrative format and its revelation of what befell the lucky ones merely on the margins of the Holocaust Boyle's court and country guide, 1872 Arthur's Lady's Home Magazine, 1886 House & Garden, 1999 Arthur's Home Magazine, 1886 Charleston Farmhouse Kim Marsland, 2016 Never published before atmospheric photographs of Charleston House taken just after Duncan Grant died and before the farmhouse was restored and opened to the public A rare glimpse into the world of the Bloomsbury set The House at Riverton Kate Morton, 2008-04-22 From the author of 1 international bestseller The Forgotten Garden and New York Times bestseller Homecoming comes a gorgeous novel set in England between World War I and World War II Perfect for fans of Downton Abbey it is the story of an aristocratic family a house a mysterious death and a way of life that vanished forever told in flashback by a woman who witnessed it all and kept a secret for decades Grace Bradley went to work at Riverton House as a servant when she was just a girl before the First World War For years her life was inextricably tied up with the Hartford family most particularly the two daughters Hannah and Emmeline In the summer of 1924 at a glittering society party held at the house a young poet shot himself The only witnesses were Hannah and Emmeline and only they and Grace know the truth In 1999 when Grace is ninety eight years old and living out her last days in a nursing home she is visited by a young director who is making a film about the events of that summer She takes Grace back to Riverton House and reawakens her memories Told in flashback this is the story of Grace s youth during the last days of Edwardian aristocratic privilege shattered by war of the vibrant twenties and the changes she witnessed as an entire way of life vanished forever The novel is full of secrets some revealed others hidden forever reminiscent of the romantic suspense of Daphne du Maurier It is also a meditation on memory the devastation of war and a beautifully rendered window into a fascinating time in history Kate Morton s first novel originally published to critical acclaim in Australia and quickly becoming a 1 bestseller in England The House at Riverton is a vivid page turning novel of suspense and passion with characters and an ending readers won t soon forget

Charleston and Monk's House Nuala Hancock, 2012-06-27 The interwoven biographies of Virginia Woolf and Vanessa Bell and the houses they lived in What can we learn from a commemorative house What biographical narratives emerge as we travel through the spaces of another s home This new study unveils the revelatory potential of the house museum to inform and enrich our understanding of the lived past of its former inhabitants It focuses on the emotionally textured interiors of Charleston and Monk s House the literary artistic house museums of Virginia Woolf and Vanessa Bell seeking out traces of their shared biography Fresh perspectives unfold on Woolf s and Bell s sisterhood and their continuous artistic exchange as we shadow their daily lives through the richly painted rooms and atmospheric gardens of their former Sussex homes Discover these celebrated artists in a different light animated moving handling the tools of their related arts and brought vividly to life through the tangible fabric of their past living

Tracing and Documenting Nazi Victims Past and Present Henning Borggräfe, Christian Höschler, Isabel Panek, 2020-06-08 After World War II tracing and documenting Nazi victims emerged against the background of millions of missing persons and early compensation proceedings This was a process in which the Allies international aid organizations and survivors themselves took part New archives documentation centers and tracing bureaus were founded amid the increasing Cold War divide They gathered documents on Nazi persecution and structured them in specialized collections to provide information on individual fates and their grave repercussions the loss of relatives the search for a new home physical or mental injuries existential problems social support and recognition but also continued exclusion or discrimination By doing so institutions involved in this work were inevitably confronted with contentious issues such as varying political mandates neutrality vs solidarity with those formerly persecuted data protection vs public interest and many more Over time tracing bureaus and archives changed methods and policies and even expanded their activities using historical documents for both research and public remembrance This is the first publication to explore this multifaceted history of tracing and documenting past and present

At Home with Bloomsbury Bloomsbury Workshop,2002 The Church and Humanity Andrew Chandler,2016-03-16

George Bell remains one of only a handful of twentieth century English bishops to possess a continuing international reputation for his involvement in political affairs His insistence that Christian faith required active participation in public life at home and abroad established an eminent and often provocative contribution to Christian ethics at large Bell s participation in the tragic history of the German resistance against Hitler has earned him an enduring place in the historiography of the Third Reich his February 1944 speech protesting against the obliteration bombing of Germany made in the House of Lords is still often considered one of the great prophetic speeches of the twentieth century Throughout his long career Bell became a leading light in the burgeoning ecumenical movement a supporter of refugees from dictatorships of all kinds a committed internationalist and a patron of the Arts This book draws together the work of leading international historians and theologians including Rowan Williams and makes an important contribution to a range of ongoing political ecumenical and international debates A woman of the world Frances Mabel Robinson,1890 The Charity Organisation Review

Charity Organisation Society (London, England),1899 Canaan Bound Lawrence Richard Rodgers,1997 Drawing on a wide range of major literary voices including Richard Wright Ralph Ellison and Toni Morrison as well as lesser known writers such as William Attaway Blood on the Forge and Dorothy West The Living Is Easy Rodgers conducts a kind of literary archaeology of the Great Migration He mines the writers biographical connections to migration and teases apart the ways in which individual novels relate to one another to the historical situation of black America and to African American literature as a whole In reading migration novels in relation to African American literary texts such as slave narratives folk tales and urban fiction Rodgers affirms the southern folk roots of African American culture and argues for a need to stem the erosion of southern memory The Kindertransport Jennifer Craig-Norton,2019-06-25 A timely study of the effects of family separation on child refugees using newly discovered archival sources from the WWII era Highly recommended Choice The Kindertransport an organized effort to extract children living under the threat of Nazism lives in the popular memory as well as in literature as a straightforward act of rescue and salvation but these celebratory accounts leave little room for a deeper more complex analysis This volume reveals that in fact many children experienced difficulties with settlement they were treated inconsistently by refugee agencies their parents had complicated reasons for giving them up and their caregivers had a variety of motives for taking them in Against the grain of many other narratives Jennifer Craig Norton emphasizes the use of newly discovered archival sources which include the correspondence of refugee agencies carers Kinder and their parents and juxtaposes this material with testimonial accounts to show readers a more nuanced and complete picture of the

Kindertransport In an era in which the family separation of refugees has commanded considerable attention this book is a timely exploration of the effects of family separation as it was experienced by child refugees in the age of fascism The Boys Martin Gilbert, 2017-05-25 Impossible to put down This is a book about coming out of hell about great evil about the triumph of the human spirit and about the great goodness on the part of those who helped One is left with hope and admiration Julia Neuberger THE TIMES A story of human resilience fortitude and victory that restores the readers hope for mankind SUNDAY TIMES This is the story of human beings sucked into a vortex of destruction in which family identity religion and culture were all ripped away A sense of near miraculous calm descends when the Boys finally arrive in Britain when human fortitude finally prevails over absolute evil David Cesarani TLS In August 1945 the first of 732 child survivors of the Holocaust reached Britain First settled in the Lake District they formed a tightly knit group of friends whose terrible shared experience is almost beyond imagining This is their story which begins in the lost communities of pre World War II central Europe moves through ghetto concentration camp and death march to liberation survival and finally fifty years later a deeply moving reunion Martin Gilbert has brought together the recollections of this remarkable group of survivors to tell their astonishing stories Émigré Voices Bea Lewkowicz, Anthony Grenville, 2021-11-22 In migr Voices Lewkowicz and Grenville present twelve oral history interviews with men and women who came to Britain as Jewish refugees from Germany and Austria in the late 1930s Many of the interviewees rose to great prominence in their chosen career such as the author and illustrator Judith Kerr the actor Andrew Sachs the photographer and cameraman Wolf Suschitzky the violinist Norbert Brainin and the publisher Elly Miller The narratives of the interviewees tell of their common struggles as child or young adult refugees who had to forge new lives in a foreign country and they illuminate how each interviewee dealt with the challenges of forced emigration and the Holocaust The voices of the twelve interviewees provide the reader with a unique and original source which gives direct access to the lived multifaceted experience of the interviewees and their contributions to British culture Thinking Home Sanja Bahun, Bojana Petric, 2020-06-07 Thinking Home challenges and extends the existing scholarship on the subject of home in a period which has seen unprecedented levels of movement cross the globe Sanja Bahun and Bojana Petric have collated essays that revisit existing ideas to introduce new ways of thinking on home from the individual and local through communal to the international levels While home informs our feelings of belonging and displacement and our activities such as migration housing and language learning Bahun Petric and contributors look to specific under studied areas and encompass them within a major framework that allows for assessment through multiple disciplinary and expressive lenses Thinking Home examines examples such as temporary homes homes on the road new and emergent modes of home making and minority groups in home and housing debates Fresh timely and topical Thinking Home is rooted in activism and policy making in the sector of home the essays both challenge and extend the existing scholarship on this subject This collection combines perspectives of aesthetics anthropology cultural and literary studies law linguistics
