Thing of Beauty Jackson Mac Low,2009-05 Jackson Mac Low s poetry and prose exceeds narrow definitions of artists by movements or poets by style His work began with and returned to timeless subjects such as children animals love war death and God diverging at points into rigorously imposed structures systems and chance operations in an effort to suppress the ego in his art At one point embarrassed by his depth of feeling Mac Low confesses to being an existential poet a declaration that the title of the poem A Lack of Balance But Not Fatal contradicts with modest and generous humor This is an important and often very moving anthology of Mac Low s thought at the same time as it reflects the preoccupations of his generation and ranges over a wide variety of approaches to writing and art making Thing of Beauty is a manifesto the term Mac Low would use to describe expressions of personal truth and his are beautiful Kristine Stiles Professor of Art History Duke University In this generous selection of Jackson Mac Low s work we can see first hand the poet s profound understanding of the physics of language and his exuberant articulation of the sounds of words in unpredictable motions The multiplicity of Mac Low s forms and his rejection of any hierarchy among the forms of poetry objective and subjective expository or nonrepresentational lyric and epic along with his refusal to identify poetic composition with a characteristic voice of the poet and his rejection of traditional aesthetic standards of beauty are among the chief marks of his iconoclastic genius Mac Low's magnificent and multidimensional poems open vast expanses for the imagination to inhabit Charles Bernstein This is one of the great watershed events in recent publishing history Mac Low's reputation has exploded on the poetry scene since his death Hannah Higgins author of Fluxus Experience Bloomsday Don Kardong, Phil Schofield, 1989-02-01

Ulysses, Film and Visual Culture Philip Sicker, 2018-09-13 Shows how Joyce's narrative styles and his protagonists' perceptions are shaped by visual technologies including dioramas stereoscopes mutoscopes and film Running Encyclopedia Richard Benyo, Joe Henderson, 2002 An A to Z resource on running including history key figures major events and primary training theories and terms

Our Joyce Joseph Kelly, 2010-06-25 James Joyce began his literary career as an Irishman writing to protest the deplorable conditions of his native country Today he is an icon in a field known as Joyce studies Our Joyce explores this amazing transformation of a literary reputation offering a frank look into how and for whose benefit literary reputations are constructed Joseph Kelly looks at five defining moments in Joyce's reputation Before 1914 when Joyce was most in control of his own reputation he considered himself an Irish writer speaking to the Dublin middle classes When T S Eliot and Ezra Pound began promoting Joyce in 1914 however they initiated a cult of genius that transformed Joyce into a prototype of the egoist a writer talking only to other writers This view served the purposes of Morris Ernst in the 1930s when he defended Ulysses against obscenity charges by arguing that geniuses were incapable of obscenity and that they wrote only for elite readers That view of Joyce solidified in Richard Ellmann's award-winning 1950s biography which portrayed Joyce as a self-centered genius who cared little for his readers and less for the world at war around him The biography in turn led to Joyce's canonization by the academy where a Joyce industry now flourishes within English departments strong and the sheer joy that comes from running faster than ever before Runner's World ,2006 Spatial Cognition Seán Ó Nualláin,2000-01-01 Spatial Cognition brings together psychology computer science linguistics and geography discussing how people think about space our internal cognitive maps and spatial perception and how we communicate about space for instance giving route directions or using spatial metaphors The technological applications adding dynamism to the area include computer interfaces educational software multimedia and in car navigation systems On the experimental level themes as varied as gender differences in orientation and of course wholly unrelated the role of the hippocampus in rodent navigation are described Much detailed analysis and computational modeling of the structure of short term memory STM is discussed The papers were presented at the 1998 annual meeting of the Cognitive Science Society of Ireland Mind III Series B James Joyce and Censorship Paul Vanderham,2016-07-27 James Joyce and Censorship is the first book to tell the fascinating story of the trials of Ulysses Based on extensive archival research it is also the first study of the trials to analyze their influence on the reception and composition of Ulysses in the context of Joyce s lifelong struggle with the censors to evaluate their significance as an important turning point in the history of censorship and to emphasize their relevance to contemporary debates regarding freedom of literary expression Bloomsday Natal Marcelo da Silva Amorim,Ana Graça Canan,2017-10-02 Os seis artigos que integram o volume que marca a 30a comemora o do Bloomsday em Natal RN retratam o trabalho do Grupo de Pesquisa em Estudos Irlandeses da Universidade Federal do Rio Grande do Norte criado em 2012 Os interesses de pesquisa dos membros do Grupo que aqui publicam v o desde biografias hist ria cultura literatura e cinema at tradu o e lingu stica aplicada ao ensino de l nguas refletindo o esp rito de colabora o e inclus o de assuntos variados dentro de um tema comum a todos a Irlanda Isso se faz ora por meio de quest es de ordem cultural e art stica ora atrav s da abordagem lingu stica Este livro assim reflete a mentalidade do Grupo que pretende se renovar e expandir o tema que motivou as primeiras comemora es do Bloomsday em Natal a obra do escritor irland s James Joyce Adaptation Studies Christa Albrecht-Crane,Dennis Ray Cutchins,2010-07-31 The volume takes as its starting point the assumption that adapters cannot simply transpose or transfer one particular text from one medium to another They must interpret re work and re imagine the precursor text in order to choose the various meanings and sensations they find most compelling or most cost effective then they create scenes characters plot elements etc that match their interpretation These very relationships are the subject matter this collection seeks to explore Poststructural theory is an ideal place to begin a rigorous and theoretically sound investigation of adaptation As adaptation studies adopts a poststructuralist lens and defines this richer notion of intertextuality some of its key assumptions will change Adaptation scholars will recognize that all film adaptations are intertextual by definition multivocal by necessity and adaptive by their nature Ulysses and the Irish God Frederick K. Lang,1993 This is the most comprehensive and original of the studies dealing with Joyce s response to the idea of God accepted in Ireland and to the sacred images and rituals prevalent there It shows how in Ulysses he undermines and exploits the crucial elements of his rejected faith how he recalls the omnipotent Father to reveal his artistic powers the incarnated Son to celebrate his own human images and the consecrated host to imply his hidden spiritual presence Frederick K Lang has closely analyzed both Joyce's texts and his sources including important sources previously unidentified First he reveals that Joyce's transubstantiation of theology and liturgy in Ulysses is foreshadowed in his first short story There by setting the Latin Mass in an Irish home Joyce casts doubt upon the Church's ability to transform matter and in his revised version of the story he casts further doubt by including parallels with the Greek liturgy a rite he regarded as subversive of the Latin Mass Next Lang reinterprets Joyce's theory of literary art in light of its specific origins in Aquinas and the New Testament and in doing so he reveals the precise meaning of the term epiphany He proceeds to demonstrate that the earlier theory including the concept of epiphany underlies the Hamlet theory and that the famous reference to love is linked to God's narcissism and creativity How the literary artist resembles God is implied not only in the Hamlet theory but in the references to orthodox and heretical views of the Father-Son relation and the Eucharist views that explain Joyce's reincarnation as both Stephen Dedalus and Leopold Bloom In Ulysses the word reincarnation has an additional meaning Not only does Joyce's soul assume new flesh but so does the Word of God Along with the feast of Christ celebrated in Ireland on 16 June 1904 the novel assimilates first the Mass then the black mass and finally the Good Friday liturgy At the end of Ulysses Molly Bloom emerges as the genuine christine prophesied on the first page Joyce's offering of her body blood and water evokes both the Crucifixion and the Eucharist and thus makes flesh a Gospel read in Irish churches on the day he chose as Bloomsday This book is lucid and provocative Free of theory and jargon it not only gives Joyce scholars fresh information and new interpretations but would interest and enlighten any reader of Ulysses BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved yes I said yes I will Yes.
