The Blue Estuaries Louise Bogan, 1975      The Tragic Life Story of Medea as Mother, Monster, and Muse Jana Rivers Norton, 2019-11-13 This volume offers a critical yet empathic exploration of the ancient myth of Medea as immortalized by early Greek and Roman dramatists to showcase the tragic forces afoot when relational suffering remains unresolved in the lives of individuals families and communities Medea as a tragic figure whose sense of isolation and betrayal interferes with her ability to form healthy attachments reveals the human propensity for violence when the agony of unresolved grief turns to vengeance against those we hold most dear However metaphorically her life story as an emblem for existential crisis serves as a psychological touchstone in the lives of early twentieth century female authors who struggled to find their rightful place in the world to resolve the sorrow of unrequited love and devotion and to reconcile experiences of societal abandonment and neglect as self discovery      Chicorel Index to Poetry in Anthologies and Collections in Print

Borderline Exegesis Leif E. Vaage, 2015-06-10 In Borderline Exegesis Leif Vaage presents an alternative approach to biblical interpretation or exegesis an approach that bends the boundaries of the traditional North American methodology to analyze the meaning of biblical texts for a wider audience To accomplish this Vaage engages in a practice he calls borderline exegesis Adapting anthropological notions of borderlands borderline exegesis
