Burying Autumn Hu Ying,2020-05-11 Autumn wind autumn rain fill my heart with sorrow these were the last words of Qiu Jin 1875 1907 written before she was beheaded for plotting to overthrow the Qing empire Eventually she would be celebrated as a Republican martyr and China s first feminist her last words committed to memory by schoolchildren Yet during her lifetime she was often seen as eccentric even deviant in her death and still more in the forced abandonment of her remains the authorities had wanted her to disappear into historical oblivion Burying Autumn tells the story of the enduring friendship between Qiu Jin and her sworn sisters Wu Zhiying and Xu Zihua who braved political persecution to give her a proper burial Formed amidst social upheaval their bond found its most poignant expression in Wu and Xu s mourning for Qiu The archives of this friendship letters poems biographical sketches steles and hand copied sutra vividly display how these women understood the concrete experiences of modernity how they articulated those experiences through traditional art forms and how their artworks transformed the cultural traditions they invoked even while maintaining deep cultural roots In enabling Qiu Jin to acquire historical significance their friendship fulfilled its ultimate socially transformative potential A

Poet and Bin-Laden Hamid Ismailov,2018-01-01 The reality novel A Poet and Bin Laden set in Central Asia at the turn of the 21st century against a swirling backdrop of Islamic fundamentalism in the Ferghana Valley and beyond gives a first hand account on the militants and Taliban s internal life The novel begins on the eve of 9 11 with the narrator s haunting description of the airplane attack on the Twin Towers as seen on TV while he is on holiday in Central Asia and tells the story of an Uzbek poet Belgi who was disappointed in the authoritarian regime in Uzbekistan and became a terrorist in the eyes of the world His journey begins with a search for a Sufi spiritual master and ends in guerrilla warfare and it is this tension between a transcendental and a violent response to oppression between the book and the bomb between Archipelago GULAG and modern Central Asia and Afghanistan that gives the novel its specific poignancy In this book Hamid Ismailov masterfully intertwines fiction with documentary and provides wonderfully vivid accounts of historical events such as the siege of Kunduz the breakout from Sheberghan prison and the insurgency in the Ferghana Valley as witnessed by the Byronian figure of Belgi who enters the inner sanctum of al Qaeda and ultimately meets Sheikh bin Laden himself
