A History of Canadian Literature William H.

New, William Herbert New, 2003 New offers an unconventionally structured overview of Canadian literature from Native American mythologies to contemporary texts Publishers Weekly A History of Canadian Literature looks at the work of writers and the social and cultural contexts that helped shape their preoccupations and direct their choice of literary form W H New explains how from early records of oral tales to the writing strategies of the early twenty first century writer reader literature and society are interrelated New discusses both Aboriginal and European mythologies looking at pre Contact narratives and also at the way Contact experience altered hierarchies of literary value He then considers representations of the real whether in documentary fantasy or satire historical romance and the social construction of Nature and State and ironic subversions of power the politics of cultural form and the relevance of the media to a representation of community standard and individual voice New suggests some ways in which writers of the later twentieth century codified such issues as history gender ethnicity and literary technique itself In this second edition he adds a lengthy chapter that considers how writers at the turn of the twenty first century have reimagined their society and their roles within it and an expanded chronology and bibliography Some of these writers have spoken from and about various social margins dealing with issues of race status ethnicity and sexuality some have sought emotional understanding through strategies of history and memory some have addressed environmental concerns and some have reconstructed the world by writing across genres and across different media All genres are represented with examples chosen primarily but not exclusively from anglophone and francophone texts A chronology plates and a series of tables supplement the commentary Women and Narrative Identity Mary Jean Matthews Green,2001 A feminist re reading of the Quebec literary tradition from Laure Conan and Gabrielle Roy to contemporary figures such as France Thoret and R gine Robin Bonheur d'occasion, roman.. Gabrielle Roy,1976

Between Languages and Cultures Rosemary Chapman,2009-04-01 Gabrielle Roy is one of the best known figures of Quebec literature yet she spent much of the first thirty years of her life studying working and living in English For Roy as a member of Manitoba s francophone minority bilingualism was a necessary strategy for survival and success How did this bilingual and bicultural background help shape her work as a writer in French The implications of her linguistic and cultural identity are explored in chapters looking at education language translation and the representation of Canada s other minorities from the immigrants in Western Canada to the Inuit of Ungava What emerges is a new reading of Roy s work Drawing on archival material postcolonial theory and translation studies Between Languages and Cultures explores the traces and effects of Roy s intimate knowledge of English language and culture challenging and augmenting the established view that her work is distinctly French Canadian or Qu b cois The Evolution of Literature in the Americas Earl E. Fitz,2025-03-31 This book offers a systematic and comparative history of the evolution of literature in the Americas from the beginning to the present day It begins with an introduction that assesses the development of the field and then proceeds to a chapter on the literature of Pre Columbian and indigenous America It then moves forward chronologically from the arrival of the Europeans beginning in 1492 to the year 2026 Including indigenous literature the other American literatures represented in the book are those of Canada both Francophone and Anglophone the United States the Caribbean Francophone and Anglophone Spanish America and Brazil Not every book ever written in the Americas is included of course only those that in the author s estimation offer some valid point of comparison with other American literary cultures These points of comparison include issues of theme genre literary periods literature and other disciplines such as history art music or politics cases of influence and reception and translation The book s emphasis is on viewing American literature from a hemispheric and comparative lens Dear Marian, Dear Hugh Hugh MacLennan,Marian Engel,1995 A student at McGill in the mid 1950s Marian Engel wrote her M A thesis under the direction of Hugh MacLennan Their work together became the basis of a correspondence the MacLennan half of which survives and is detailed here Both personal and professional in nature MacLennan s letters to Engel provide fascinating insights into his life s pursuit of writing and offer another glimpse of the author of Two Solitudes Published in English Writing Unemployment Jody Mason,2013-01-01 This landmark study explores the cultural and literary history of unemployment in Canada from the 1920s to the 1970s which were crucial decades in the formation of our current conception of Canada as a nation Writing Unemployment asks how writers with diverse political affiliations participated in and protested against the discursive framing of unemployment It argues that

Depression era conceptions of unemployment shaped later twentieth century understandings of both worklessness and citizenship By examining novels short stories poetry manifestos and agitprop Jody Mason situates the literary history of the cultural left in a broader context challenges the dominant literary historical narrative of the pioneer settler and contributes to new scholarship on Canada s modern period By bridging close textual readings with book and publishing history economic and sociological analysis and original archival research Writing Unemployment offers new ideas on work by many of Canada s most important writers

Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 I will be giving the Kesterton Lecture at Carleton s School of Journalism and Communication The title of my small talk is Scientific Romancing Its cover story is that it s about science fiction Its subtext is probably What is fiction for or something like that 2 The intersection between science and fiction is a point of interest for me I want to understand why people write and read these types of stories and what they re good for 3 The novel has always claimed to offer a certain kind of truth about human nature and how people really behave under observable social conditions The genres want to entertain us rather than just rub our noses in the daily grind 4 The distinction between fiction and journalism is important when discussing the future While no one can predict the future you can dip into the present and explore the seeds of what might become the future

Certain Difficulty of Being Anthony Purdy,1990-06-01 In the Preface to A Certain

Difficulty of Being Purdy examines the kinds of discourse that deal with the novel in some nineteenth century Quebec novel prefaces thereby revealing a theme of generic denegation in the sense of This is not a novel Purdy goes on to explore the transition from epic to novel in Flix Antoine Savard's Menaud maître draveur the contradictions stemming from the use of a first person present tense narrative in Andr Langevin's Poussi re sur la ville the problem of narrativity and history as it is raised in Hubert Aquin's Prochain pisode and the way in which narrative voice functions in Anne H bert's Kamouraska He also touches on the current debate concerning the boundaries between modernism and post modernism Purdy does not offer an all embracing system to explain the development of narrative in the Quebec novel but leads us to an understanding of how these particular novels function each in its own socio historical context and how they achieve or fail to achieve what they set out to do The thread that runs through the different chapters is a pragmatic concern with Quebec's historical difficulty of being as it informs in varying ways the narrative projects of the novels in question

Critical Collaborations Smaro Kamboureli, Christl Verduyn, 2014-05-28 Critical Collaborations Indigeneity Diaspora and Ecology in Canadian Literary Studies is the third volume of essays produced as part of the TransCanada conferences project The essays gathered in Critical Collaborations constitute a call for collaboration and kinship across disciplinary political institutional and community borders They are tied together through a simultaneous call for resistance to Eurocentrism corporatization rationalism and the fantasy of total systems of knowledge and a call for critical collaborations These collaborations seek to forge connections without perceived identity linking concepts and communities without violating the differences that constitute them seeking epistemic kinships while maintaining a willingness to not know In this way they form a critical conversation between seemingly distinct areas and demonstrate fundamental allegiances between diasporic and indigenous scholarship transnational and local knowledges legal and eco critical methodologies Links are forged between Indigenous knowledge and ecological and social justice creative critical reading and ambidextrous epistemologies unmaking the nation through translocalism and unsettling histories of colonial complicity through a poetics of relation Together these essays reveal how the critical methodologies brought to bear on literary studies can both challenge and exceed disciplinary structures presenting new forms of strategic transdisciplinarity that expand the possibilities of Canadian literary studies while also emphasizing humility complicity and the limits of knowledge
