Our Boys and Girls Oliver Optic, 1868 The 92-Year-Old Lady Who Made Me Steal a Dead Man`s Car Paul Friedrich Schäfer, 2020-10-11 A thought provoking novel for readers who enjoy literary fiction unpredictable originality bizarre mystery and cool philosophical reasoning An old lady and a young man meet on a crosswalk in Manhattan in bizarre circumstances which drastically change the directions of their lives A foul mouthed youth is killed in a traffic accident The old lady s apartment is visited by folks that would make most people run to their psychologist A mass murderer explains why he thinks he is a good man A cool Jesus asks for parts of The Bible to be rewritten Literary characters come alive and attempt something which would make their authors if they knew about it scream in horror or roll over in their graves It takes a while for the police to get involved but when it finally happens the outcome is one that nobody could have predicted This novel invites you to let go of reality and float along in a world in which realism fiction and philosophy merge into unpredictability wisdom and fun Dime Novel Roundup Michael L. Department of Printed Books,1969 How to Read the Victorian Novel George Levine,2007-11-19 How to Read the Victorian Novel provides a unique introduction to the genre Using examples from the classics like The Pickwick Papers David Copperfield Jane Eyre The Woman in White and Middlemarch it demonstrates just how unfamiliar their familiarity is The book attempts to break free of the sense that the Victorian novel is somehow old fashioned moralizing and formally careless by emphasizing the complexity difficulty and rare pleasures of the Victorian writers strenuous efforts both to entertain and to teach to create serious art and to appeal to wide audiences to respond both to the demands of publishing and also to their own rich imaginative engagement with a world heading into modernity at full speed Broad in its scope the text surveys a wide variety of literary types and explores the cultural and historical developments of the novel form itself The book also poses a series of big questions pertaining to money capitalism industry race gender and at the same time to formal issues such as plotting perspective and realist representation In addition it locates the qualities that give to the great variety of Victorian novels a family resemblance the material conditions of their production their tendency to multiply plots their obsession with class and money their problematic handling of gender questions and their commitment to realist representation How to Read the Victorian Novel challenges our comfortable expectations of the genre in order to explore intensively a burgeoning and changing literary form which mirrors a burgeoning and changing society

Paleoconservatives Joseph A. Scotchie,2017-07-05 Paleoconservatism as a concept came into circulation during the 1980s as a rejoinder to the rise of neoconservatism It signifies a brand of conservatism that rose up in opposition to the New Deal setting itself against the centralizing trends that define modern politics to champion the republican virtues of self governance and celebrate the nation s varied and colorful regional cultures This volume brings together key writings of the major representatives of Old Right thought past and present The essays included here define a coherent intellectual tradition linking New York libertarians to unreconstructed Southern traditionalists to Midwestern agrarians Part I is devoted to the founding fathers of the modern conservative movement Essays by Frank Chodorov Murray Rothbard and James Burnham attack economic aspects of the New Deal big government in general and high taxes Russell Kirk introduces the cultural paleoconservatism with its preference for social classes and distinctions of age and sex while Richard Weaver explains why culture is more important to a civilization's survival than mere material conditions The second part covers the contemporary resurgence of the Old Right Chilton Williamson Jr sets out the argument against large scale immigration on cultural and economic grounds The divisive issue of trade is covered William Hawkins outlines a mercantilist trade policy at odds with the free trade libertarianism of Chodorov and Rothbard On education Allan Carlson goes further than the Beltway Right in his advocacy of home schooling M E Bradford shows how the doctrine of equality of opportunity inevitably leads to greater and more tyrannical state action The contemporary culture wars are the focus of Thomas Fleming Paul Gottfried Clyde Wilson and Samuel Francis who search for the roots of American nationalism the lessons to be drawn from the past and how they may be applied in the future
