Why I Write? Bohumil Hrabal, 2019-10-01 This collection of the earliest prose by one of literature's greatest stylists captures as scholar Arnault Mar chal put it the moment when Hrabal discovered the magic of writing Taken from the period when Bohumil Hrabal shifted his focus from poetry to prose these stories many written in school notebooks typed and read aloud to friends or published in samizdat often showcase raw experiments in style that would define his later works Others intriguingly utilize forms the author would never pursue again Featuring the first appearance of key figures from Hrabal's later writings such as his real life Uncle Pepin who would become a character in his later fiction and is credited here as a coauthor of one piece the book also contains stories that Hrabal would go on to cannibalize for some of his most famous novels All together Why I Write offers readers the chance to explore this liminal phase of Hrabal's writing Expertly interpreted by award winning Hrabal translator David Short this collection comprises some of the last remaining prose works by Hrabal to be translated into English A treasure trove for Hrabal devotees Why I Write allows us to see clearly why this great prose master was as described by Czech writer and publisher Josef Kvasnicka fundamentally a lyrical poet

Multilingual Europe, Multilingual Europeans, 2015-06-29 Multilingualism is a crucial if often unrecognized marker of new European identities In this collection of essays we observe how a plurilinguist and pluricultural political entity practices and theorizes multilingualism We ask which types of multilingualism are defined encouraged or discouraged at the level of official policies but also at the level of communities We look at speakers of hegemonic or minority languages at travellers and long term migrants or their children and analyse how their conversations are represented in official documents visual art cinema literature and popular culture The volume is divided into two parts that focus respectively on Multilingual Europe and Multilingual Europeans The first series of chapters explore the extent to which multilingualism is treated as both a challenge and an asset by the European Union examine which factors contribute to the proliferation of languages globalisation the enlargement of the European Union and EU language policies The second part of the volume concentrates on the ways in which cultural productions represent the linguistic practices of Europeans in a way that emphasizes the impossibility to separate language from culture nationality but also class ethnicity or gender The chapters suggest that each form of plurilingualism needs to be carefully analysed rather than celebrated or condemned

The Death of Mr. Baltisberger Bohumil Hrabal, 2010-11-30 Originally published as The Death of Mr Baltisberger the fourteen stories in Romance showcase the breadth of Bohumil Hrabal's considerable gifts his humor of the grotesque his often surprising warmth and his hard edged fast paced style In the story Romance a plumber's apprentice and a gypsy girl reach toward a tentative connection across the chasm that separates their worlds Another unlikely love story World Cafeteria features a romance between a young man whose girlfriend has just committed suicide and a bride whose husband lands in jail on their wedding night The tone turns to the absurd in The Death of Mr Baltisberger where a crippled ex motorcyclist and three people he meets at the track exchange wildly improbably reminiscences while a fatal Grand Prix motorcycle race rages around them Hrabal's psychological insight into quotidian interactions saturates stories such as A Dull Afternoon where a mysterious self absorbed stranger disrupts the psychic calm of a neighborhood tavern and becomes the silent catalyst for an unwanted truth Throughout the collection noted translator Michael Henry Heim captures the quirky speech patterns and idiosyncratic takes on life that have made Hrabal's characters an indispensable part of world literature

Pirouettes on a Postage Stamp Bohumil Hrabal, 2008-01-01 The book is a novel interview initiated by the Hungarian journalist writer and anti communist activist based in Slovakia L szl Szigeti It retains the character of a more or less verbatim oral record it is full of false starts and thematic and syntactic digressions characteristic for the majority of Hrabal's magical bizarre and grotesque tales It is unique for being autobiographical and for making the reader understand Hrabal's personality his philosophy and perception and understanding of Central Europe shortly before the fall of totalitarian regime in the late 80s
