The Jewish Persona in the European Imagination Leonid Livak, 2010-09-10 This book proposes that the idea of the Jews in European cultures has little to do with actual Jews but rather is derived from the conception of Jews as Christianity's paradigmatic Other eternally reenacting their morally ambiguous New Testament role as the Christ bearing and killing chosen people of God Through new readings of canonical Russian literary texts by Gogol Turgenev Chekhov Babel and others the author argues that these European writers Christian secular and Jewish based their representation of Jews on the Christian exegetical tradition of anti Judaism Indeed

Livak disputes the classification of some Jewish writers as belonging to Jewish literature arguing that such an approach obscures these writers debt to European literary traditions and their ambivalence about their Jewishness This work seeks to move the study of Russian literature and Russian Jewish literature in particular down a new path It will stir up controversy around Christian Jewish cultural interaction the representation of otherness in European arts and folklore modern Jewish experience and Russian literature and culture The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theology Mary McClintock

Fulkerson, Sheila Briggs, 2012 This volume highlights the relevance of globalization and the insights of gender studies and religious studies for feminist theology It focuses on the changing global contexts for the field and its movement towards new models of theology distinct from the forms of traditional Christian systematic theology and of secular feminism The Midwife of Venice Roberta Rich, 2012-02-14 Beautifully told with exceptional skill The Midwife of Venice brings to life a time and a place cloaked in fascination and mystery and introduces a captivating new talent in historical fiction

Teaching Jewish History Julia Phillips Berger, 2006 Inform your students lives with the richness of thousands of years of Jewish history culture and tradition Teaching Jewish History tackles separately each of the key Jewish historical periods Biblical Rabbinic Medieval Early Modern Enlightenment and Modern as well as the North American Jewish experience The authors shift focus away from rote memorization of dates names and places and instead examine each period through the lens of core historical concepts the Diaspora Covenant acculturation assimilation and building community History comes to life helping students whether elementary middle or high school or adult develop a stronger Jewish identity Teaching Jewish History gives teachers the tools to Understand and explain the meaning of key concepts terms names places and events in each period of history Identify and examine primary source documents and objects such as artifacts diaries sacred texts photographs and artwork Conduct meaningful discussions of how the core concepts of Jewish history recur in and are relevant to each historical period Develop a variety of activities including field trips mock trials oral histories and role playing activities Place historical events on a timeline Use additional historical and educational resources such as books articles videos and Internet sites Teaching Jewish History is an invaluable resource for the novice and the expert teacher of religious and day school children and for educators working with adults in synagogues community centers and family education programs
