Librum amici et amati. English. Johnston Ramon Llull, 1995 Ramon LLull 1232 1316 was born the son of a prosperous Catalan merchant and spent his youth pursuing worldly pursuits until a series of powerful visions of Christ moved him to devote his life entirely to serving God One of his lifelong ambitions was to write a book to counter the errors of the infidels to which end he studied Arabic and immersed himself in whatever arabic texts he could obtain The Book of the Lover is one of the most celebrated works of medieval mystical literature offering a uniquely expressed and moving testimony to the soul s quest for union with God The 365 paragraphs of moral metaphors intended for daily meditation are written in the style of the Muslim sufis who offer words of love and brief exempla that inspire great devotion Professor Johnston concisely explains the peculiarities of Llull s idiosyncratic theological and philosophical system and offers the most comprehensive assessment to date of his debt to the Islamic tradition of devotional discourse In addition brief notes help to guide the reader s appreciation of the spiritual insight that Llull sought to stimulate with his text Contains original Latin and Catalan text translation and commentary Who's who Henry Robert Addison, Charles Henry Oakes, William John Lawson, Douglas Brooke Wheelton

Egan, 2010-10-01 Called in a special way to listen to God s whispers the mystics amplify not only what it means to be baptized into the life death and resurrection of Jesus Christ and to having the Trinity living in them but also what is deepest in the human spirit

Mystics experience themselves as an infinite question to which only God is the answer as an immense longing that only Love can quench as a nothing in the face of the No Thing They are God's fools troubadours the great artists and poets of the interior life whose learned ignorance articulates the art of loving God neighbor self the Church and the world In Soundings in the Christian Mystical Tradition Harvey Egan draws on fifty years of reading and teaching the mystics to sketch the varieties and passion of the mystical life across more than two millennia Through their stories and words Egan reveals that all were conscious of the paradox of human identity supremely and unsurpassably manifested in the God Man that the genuinely human is disclosed only through surrender to God and that the search for God cannot bypass the genuinely human Harvey D Egan SJ is the author of numerous works on Christian mysticism and the thought of Karl Rahner He is currently professor of systematic and mystical theology at Boston College
