South Wind Through the Kitchen Elizabeth David, 2011-03-17 A posthumous collection of recipes and articles recommended by her friends and fans from the best food writer of her time Jane Grigson The Times Literary Supplement Before Elizabeth David died in 1992 she and her editor Jill

Norman had begun work on a volume of The Best of but then her health deteriorated and the project was shelved. The idea was revived in 1996 when chefs and writers and Elizabeth's many friends were invited to select their favorite articles and recipes. The names of the contributors who number among some of our finest food writers such as Simon Hopkinson, Alice Waters, Sally Clarke, Richard Olney, Paul Levy, and Anne Willan appear after the pieces they had chosen along with their notes. The writings and recipes which make up South Wind Through the Kitchen are drawn from all of Elizabeth David's books: namely A Book of Mediterranean Food, French Country Cooking, Italian Food, Summer Cooking, French Provincial Cooking, Spices, Salt and Aromatics in the English Kitchen, English Bread and Yeast Cookery, An Omelette and a Glass of Wine, and Harvest of the Cold Months. There are over 200 recipes organized around courses and ingredients such as eggs and cheese, fish and shellfish, meat, poultry and game, vegetables, pasta, pulses and grains, sauces, sweet dishes and cakes, preserves and bread, all interspersed with extracts and articles making it a delightful compendium to dip into as well as cook from. The doyenne of food writers, a touching eulogy compiled by those who loved her. While it contains recipes from France, the Mediterranean, and the Levant, the book is really a collection of Mrs. David's memories of those places.

French Country Cooking Françoise Brangeret, 2015-11-17. Here are 180 recipes of traditional French appetizers, entrees, and desserts that members of the French National Assembly, representing the myriad regions of their native country, have decided to share with the world. From a challenging slow-cooked hare recipe that predates the French Revolution to the simplest bread, The Cuisine of the French Republic is both wittily political and warmly personal. It comes with fascinating legends of La France profonde, historical information, and a great deal of Gallic charm. None of the recipes are chic, trendy, minimalist, or Nouvelle Cuisine. Here is the real thing. The diversity and originality of these recipes are representative of France's rich culinary heritage. The Cuisine of the French Republic offers a unique chance of entering La France profonde that no or few tourists ever penetrate. This comprehensive cultural and gastronomic insider view into private kitchens, farms replete with ancestral recipes passed on through generations, will enchant the armchair traveler as well as inspire to visit the many different regions of France, a country so rich with many cuisines. Cooking is our soul, Brangeret says, but political life, politics intrude. These recipes are testimony to our small pleasures, our contribution to history.
