R. Nazario, 2012-02 In New York City at a time of great changes a disillusioned young woman seeks escape from the broken civilization she has become trapped in The untimely death of her estranged father casts doubt on everything she thought she knew about her family and a disquieting inheritance falls into her unsteady hands Puzzling discoveries are made at her ancestral home ultimately leading her into an untamed wilderness seeking answers to her mounting questions Once there she is drawn toward an ancient Native American shrine where her arrival is eagerly awaited and all is not what it seems A trio of diverse companions make the trek at her side James a drug addled New Yorker struggling to be reborn Danielle a free spirited California girl whose love knows no bounds and Kevin a thick skulled thick skinned good ol boy from the hills of upstate New York Though each of them joins the expedition for reasons of their own it is not long before a greater purpose emerges It quickly becomes apparent that the power of choice is both a blessing and a curse as the supernatural journey of self discovery takes a deadly turn The adventurers are forced to evolve or die in a confrontation with an antediluvian terror even as they strive to discover their roles in the continuing evolution of mankind and the uncertain future that lies ahead One thing alone is certain the changes taking place within them have an external counterpart and the world they left behind is not the world the survivors will return to Long Night's Moon Cate Martin,2022-12-13 Prohibition ended on December 5 1933 But just because alcohol is legal doesn't mean it's easy to find Anna Olsen wants her sister to have all the best for her engagement party And the best means champagne Only scarcity thwarts her every attempt to find any She knows where to find all she could ever want But getting it Not so easy George Andrews appreciates his mentor trying to find him a bride But none of the candidates at his mentor's New Year's Eve party intrigue him half as much as the woman he catches sneaking around the back corridors looking for the wine cellar But what links her to the man like a father to him Long Night's Moon a short story of romance with a little crime set in post Prohibition Minnesota Last Night's Moon Lynne Zarek,2012-11 After growing up in a small town in Missouri Lynsey decided to venture west to try to unravel an enigma that she has known about since she was five After settling to Idaho Lynsey saw herself struggling with her sexuality and with the religious beliefs that she grew up with Coupled by abusive relationships the unimaginable happened on a hot August night in 1990 A deep knife wound to the back placed Lynsey on the witness stand with an unusual case for a jury to deliberate in Boise A trial that not only was a first for Idaho but was also historic in nature nationwide Legend Into Language Moira Andrew,1998 Artwork and language activities for five to eleven year olds based on myths and legends from nine different countries Africa Australia China England Greece India North America Scotland and Wales Long Night Moon SM Reine,2014-03-01 Something is killing innocent people around Rylie Gresham's town The police think it's a wild animal but she has other suspicions There are new kids at school and they have a lot in common with her gold eyes super strength and a habit of turning furry It seems Rylie's not the only werewolf around anymore It's up to Rylie and her werewolf hunting boyfriend Seth to stop the killings But saving lives doesn't come naturally to a monster and territory battles could risk the life of her sickly aunt not to mention her own Rylie has no choice but to stand her ground protect her home and stop the murders before anyone else gets hurt The Sky at Night: Book of the Moon - A Guide to Our Closest Neighbour Maggie Aderin-Pocock,2018-09-13 How well do you know our closest neighbour Featured on BBC Radio 4 Saturday Live and BBC Breakfast The moon has fascinated humankind since the beginning of history But far from being just a big rock out in space the Moon has a phenomenal power over the earth with its ability to create great waves dictate the length of the day and summon the seasons It is a key player in the story of our planet In this unique celebration of the Moon lunar expert and space scientist Dr Maggie Aderin-Pocock takes readers on a journey through the Moon's past present and future She uncovers the way the Moon has captured our imaginations contemplates how it was formed and uncovers why we need the

Moon to protect our fragile earth Drawing on the latest scientific research she then looks forward to what might be to come will we return to the moon or will it become a launch pad to go into the great unknown Filled with fascinating facts and anecdotes and written with warmth and passion The Book of the Moon is for scientists and stargazers alike You ll never look at our closest neighbour in the same way again

Waiting for the Long Night Moon Amanda Peters,2025-02-11 From the bestselling author of The Berry Pickers In her debut collection of short fiction Amanda Peters describes the Indigenous experience from an astonishingly wide spectrum in time and place from contact with the first European settlers to the forced removal of Indigenous children to the present day fight for the right to clean water In this intimate collection Amanda Peters melds traditional storytelling with beautiful spare prose to describe the dignity of the traditional way of life the humiliations of systemic racism and the resilient power to endure A young man returns from residential school only to realize he can no longer communicate with his own parents A grieving mother finds purpose and healing on the front lines as a water protector And a nervous child dances in her first Mawi omi The collection also includes the Indigenous Voices Award winning and title story Waiting for the Long Night Moon At times sad sometimes disturbing but always redemptive the stories in Waiting for the Long Night Moon will remind you that where there is grief there is also joy where there is trauma there is resilience and most importantly there is power
