Making Artist Books Today Wulf D. von Lucius, Gunnar A. Kaldewey, 1998 No detailed description available for Making Artist Books Today

The Collaborative Artist's Book Alexandra J. Gold, 2023-06-08 The Collaborative Artist's Book offers a rare glimpse into collaborations between poets and painters from 1945 to the present and highlights how the artist's book became a critical form for experimental American artists in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Alexandra Gold provides a broad overview of the artist's book form and the many ongoing debates and challenges from the disciplinary to the institutional that these forms continue to pose

Surveying the Record Edward Carlos Carter, 1999 Papers given at a conference on Scientific Exploration in North America to 1930 with topics including Cartography Oceanic Exploration Art Anthropology Lewis and Clark and the West This book adds much to our quest for knowledge of who and where we are by illuminating such themes as the role of maps and mapmaking in defining our national identity the origins of Western exploration the cultural clash found in the best selling account of a 19th century physician explorer with Arctic peoples the role of art in the service of science in bringing these newly discovered places and peoples into the American parlor and the impact of Mormon farming techniques on John Wesley Powell's famed 1878 Arid Region Report Black and white maps and illustrations

San Francisco Lithographer Robert J. Chandler, 2014-01-29 Grafton Tyler Brown whose heritage was likely one eighth African American finessed his way through San Francisco society by passing for white Working in an environment hostile to African American achievement Brown became a successful commercial artist and businessman in the rough and tumble gold rush era and the years after the Civil War Best known for his bird's eye cityscapes he also produced and published maps charts and business documents and he illustrated books sheet music advertisements and labels for cans and other packaging This biography by a distinguished California historian gives an underappreciated artist and his work recognition long overdue Focusing on Grafton Tyler Brown's lithography and his life in nineteenth century San Francisco Robert J Chandler offers a study equally fascinating as a business and cultural history and as an introduction to Brown the artist Chandler's contextualization of Brown's career goes beyond the issue of race Showing how Brown survived and flourished as a businessman Chandler offers unique insight into the growth of printing and publishing in California and the West He examines the rise of lithography its commercial and cultural importance and the competition among lithographic companies He also analyzes Brown s work and style comparing it to the products of rival firms Brown was not respected as a fine artist until after his death Collectors of western art and Americana now recognize the importance of Californiana and of Brown s work some of which depicts Portland and the Pacific Northwest and they will find Chandler s checklist descriptions and reproductions of Brown s ephemera including billheads and maps as uniquely valuable as Chandler s contribution to the cultural and commercial history of California In an afterword historian Shirley Ann Wilson Moore discusses the circumstances and significance of passing in nineteenth century America
